MEN CANADA DOES NOT WANT (Times Special Correspondence) London, Dec. 9.—Mr. Justice Atorfy has again put a stop to the plea for leniency on the ground that prisoners would be sent to Canada, which is still frequently advanced by counsel.

A postman pleaded guilty to stealing postal packets and postal orders, and his counsel asked for clemency as there was an opportunity of sending him to the dominion. The judge administered a strong rebuke to the lawyer, saying that he should not have made the suggestion of sending criminals to Canada.
