

The Man In The Street

The German cruiser Emden is still at large; here's a chance for the St. John Power Boat club to make good offers of help to the admiralty.

Room for More
"What kind of stuff is this?" a local patriot inquired as he dug into the jam pot.

"That is strawberry jam," his wife replied.
"Um, doesn't taste like the regular supply."

"Well you told me to buy only Canadian made goods."

Then they turned up the bottle and looked at the label. It read: "Strawberry and Apples."

"The apples are there all right, but I have not found that strawberry yet," was his sad conclusion.

The individual who sits behind you at a concert, and insists in humming, very much out of tune, the air that is being played by the band or orchestra—wouldn't you like to feed him to the Germans?

The temperance people have to be careful in the wording of their protests against the "wet" content at Salisbury Plains. If they tried to say what they really think it might not get past the censor.

It is understood that the report that the staff of the St. John Standard is aiming to repel the invasion of United States troops, to avenge the arrest of the German fishermen taken from an American tug, is quite incorrect.

General Von Kluck is entitled to sympathy, with the British army in front of him and the Kaiser behind him.

The fellow who's fond of apple cider is taking full advantage these days of the new national appeal to patriotism—yes, full is the word.

Since we must ride in street cars now and then, it's no harm wishing that the old-fashioned ones were still in service—the old cars that had backs to the seats, not half-backs.

There's always somebody who knows more about your business and how to run it than you do yourself. Hear how those arm-chair strategists are telling you they'd do things if they were in charge.

Business As Usual
The devil stuck his head out of Hell and heard his henchman shout, "All's well!"

Over the ear rang his terrible yell, "Business As Usual!"

The Grim Reaper sat on a mountain high, Where the powder-smoke blackened poor European eyes.

"How's business," they asked, and they heard him cry, "Business As Usual!"

"Better Than Usual!"

Get those apples yet?

Boy arrested for throwing tomatoes in the city market. Young man, you must remember that this is war time and such wanton waste may effect the already h. c. of l.

Two persons made themselves unnecessarily conspicuous at a picture house one evening this week. Approaching a row of empty chairs they walked deliberately over to the middle and sat down. It was their right and privilege to sit down on the end seats, and enjoy the pleasure of letting all the other people crowd past them, and they didn't. Such self-dignity is amazing, even in war time.

A subscriber writes that there is good even in war. "For forty years," he writes "those Frenchmen have had nothing to do but sit down and invent pant-leg dresses and other fashion horrors for our women to wear. Now that they have some real work to do maybe the fashions will change."

TORONTO MAN ESCAPES.
Held Prisoner in Brussels by the Germans.

London, Oct. 29.—Charles L. Gould, of Toronto, of Gould, Abraham & Co., bond dealers in Brussels, has succeeded in getting away from the Belgian capital after being held a prisoner there by the Germans since August 20. Under the cover of darkness he escaped to Antwerp two weeks ago and with the Belgian refugees crossed the Dutch border. He is certain he would have been shot if his identity had been discovered.

Mr. Gould tells of wanton cruelty by the Germans who are killing their own seriously wounded. Besides destroying churches and houses the Germans in Belgium are demolishing tomb stones in cemeteries, which they use as practice targets for their recruits who have just arrived on the fighting line. Arriving in England Mr. Gould received news of the death of his father, H. P. Gould, aged

TORTURED BY CONSTIPATION

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured Paralyzed Bowels and Digestion

St. Boniface, de Shawinigan, Que., Feb. 3rd, 1914.

"It is a pleasure to me to inform you that after suffering from Chronic Constipation for two and a half years, I have been cured by 'Fruit-a-tives'."

While I was a student at Berthier College I became so ill I was forced to leave the college. Severe pains across the intestines continually tortured me and it came to a point when I could not stoop down at all, and my Digestion became paralyzed. Some one advised me to take 'Fruit-a-tives' and at once I felt a great improvement. After I had taken four or five boxes, I realized that I was completely cured and what made me glad, also, was that they were acting gently, causing no pain whatever to the bowels. All those who suffer with Chronic Constipation should follow my example and take 'Fruit-a-tives' for they are the medicine that cures."

MAGLOIRE PAGUET.

"Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c, or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Hazen-Arthur.

Frederick B. Hazen and Bertha M. Arthur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. E. Arthur, were united in marriage last night at the Silver Falls Methodist church. The ceremony was conducted very quietly, the Rev. J. J. Pinkerton officiating. The bride was given away by her brother, William, and was attired in a most becoming dress of crepe de chine with shadow lace trimmings, and carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and the choir was present and sang several hymns. After
