The Coronation Cup races at Baddeck have been exciting a great deal of interest among local yachtsmen lately as the cup was originally donated by Roba ert Thomson, the former commodore of the R. K. Y. C. and was won about twelve years ago by a freak Sydney yacht called the Cibou. At a recent meeting of the club it was decided to have a yacht built to compete for the trophy next year and over $700 was at once subscribed. Several yacht designers have been asked about the probable cost and it is estimated that it will be in the neighborhood of $8,000. cluding pitchers and fielders and all were going as well in that series as they have in the last two years.

The boys deserve great credit for their showing, because Pittsburg came into New York after a very successful trip, confident of winning and in the best form the club has been in this season.

Clarke put Wagner into the games in the hope of stopping the Giants. Honus played great ball in the field, but he did not show his old batting ability. Matty

"Yes, and he watches the whites of your eyes, too," answered the Big Dutchman.

As a matter of fact, Mathewson does watch the batter's feet to some extent It is the old trick of the boxer to catch his opponent off his balance and flat footed. It is putting the ball where the hitter is not expecting it.

"With Wagner up," said Matty once, "I with his feet to see whether he is going to try to hit the ball to right field, Wagner frequently tries to drop a safe one there, especially if a man is on the bases, because then he bats behind the runner. He tips me off with his feet, and I try to keep the ball in close so that he will have to hit it on the handle."
