

The Evening Times Pictorial Page

KEEPING PEACE IN THE RUHR—French Machine Guns in Essen Help to Maintain Reasonable Order.

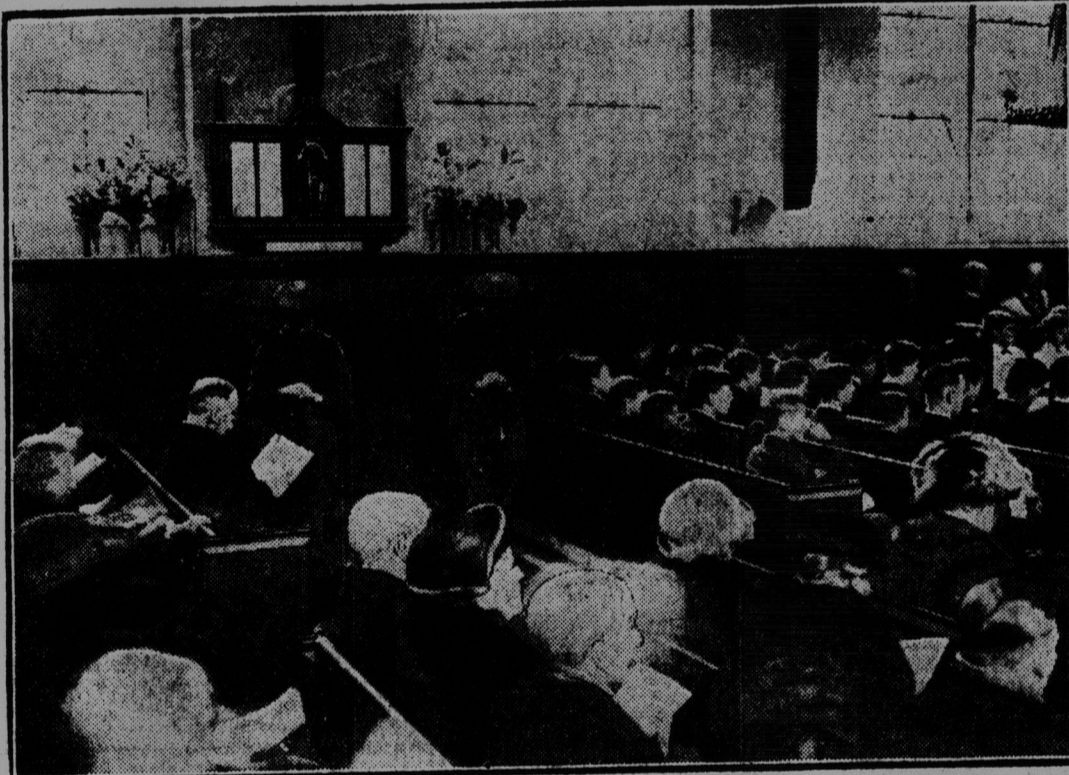

WILD GEESE SPENDING WINTER IN CANADA—A Remarkable Group of These Great Birds on the "Sanctuary" Pond at Kingville, Ont., of Jack Miner, the Bird Lover, Naturalist and Lecturer.

A CHANGE FROM GREECE—Prince Christopher and Lady Sarah Wilson Out for a Chair Ride at Palm Beach.

FEDERAL MINISTERS' RIGHT-HAND MEN (No. 9)—Dr. W. J. Black, Deputy Minister of Immigration and Colonization, Former President of Manitoba Agricultural College.

REVERENCE FOR THE DEPARTED—An Unusual Photograph of the Interior of Chapel at Emanuel School, Wandsworth Common, London, When Memorial Was Unveiled.

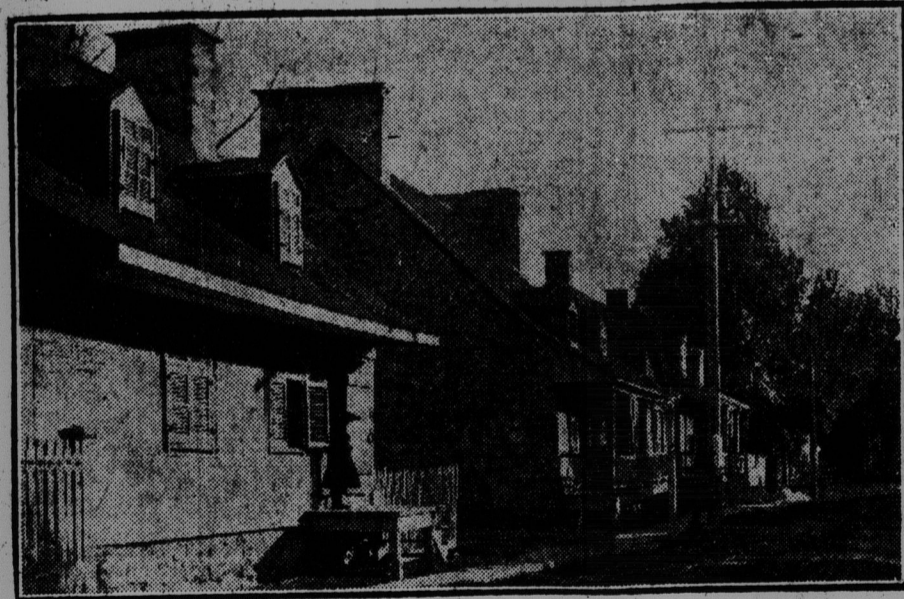

FASHIONS ON THE RIVIERA—The Maharane of Pudukota at the Lawn Tennis Club at Cannes.

READY TO DEFEND TITLE—Frank Lundin of New London, Ia., World's Champion Horse-shoe Pitcher, Will Meet All Comers in Tournament at St. Petersburg, Fla., This Week for "Barnyard Golfers."

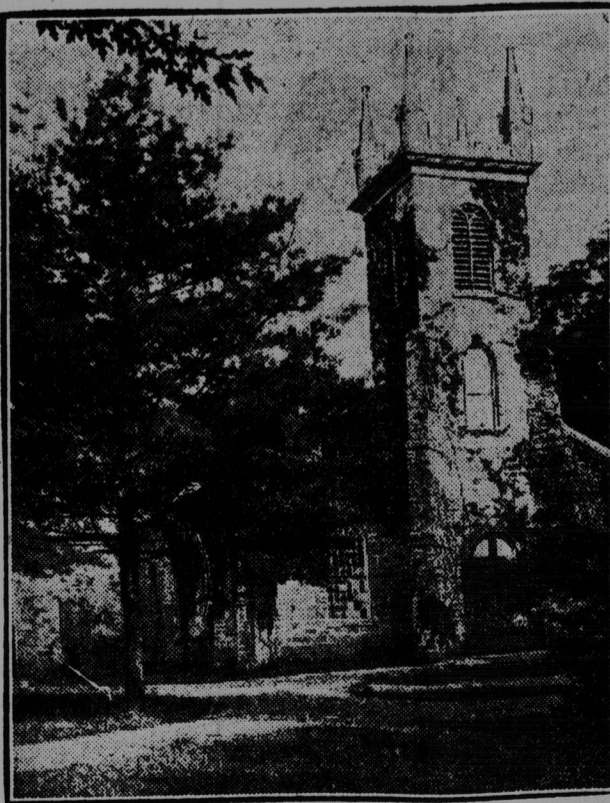

A JOLLY GROUP OF SKATERS AT TORONTO, Including Miss Clare Eagan, Well-known Speed Skater.

IN A QUIET QUEBEC TOWN—Some of the Old Houses in Longueuil.

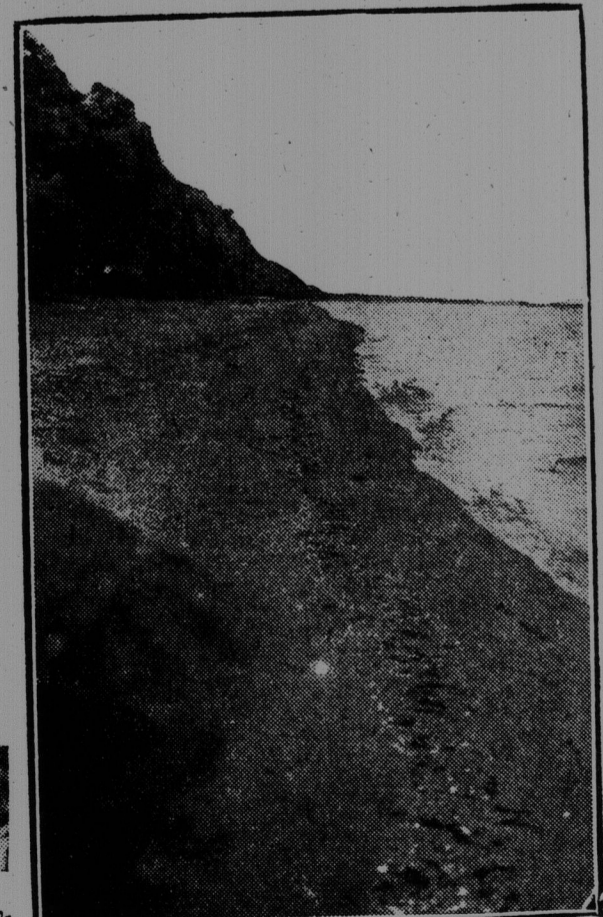

COSTUMES OF MIDDLE AGES—Small Attendants at Wedding of Sir Timothy Eden in London, Wearing Costumes of Plantagenet Period

HISTORIC SPOTS IN CANADA (No. 34)—Old St. Mark's Church, Niagara, originally built 1804-9; burned by Americans 1813; rebuilt and consecrated 1828

LEAVES SALVATION ARMY FOR STAGE—Rhea Crawford, Formerly a Captain in S.A., Who Became Known Far and Wide Recently for Her Tilts With New York Police for Holding Meetings on Great White Way. She Is to Play in "My Gal Sal," Specially Written for Her.

"I HEAR YOU CALLING ME"—A Pretty Bit of the Shore of Lake Eric, Near Leamington, in the Good Old Summer-time.