The Law Society of Ontario.

The Law Society was first established in 1797, by the Act 37 George III., c. 13, which enabled the then practitioners of the law to form themselves into a society and make rules for its government. By the Act of 1822, 2. George IV., c. 5, "the Treasurer and Benchers of the Law Society" were formally incorporated; and under these and other statutes the Society has continued to these and other statutes the Society has continued to be governed by a Board of Benchers, in the same manner as the various Law Societies of England. By the Act 34 Vic., c. 15, the Benchers theretofore appointed from time to time by their own body, are made, exclusive of ex officio members, elective by the Bar, the ex officio consisting of the Attorney-General for the time being, and all members of the par of Ontario who have at any time held the office of Attorney or Solicitor General of the former Province of Upper Canada, and nave at any time here the once of Attorney of Solicitor General of the former Province of Upper Canada, and any retired Judge of the Superior Courts of Law or Equity of Ontario; the elective, thirty in number, being chosen by ballot, for a term of five years, by the memchosen by ballot, for a term of five years, by the members of the Ber, in the manner prescribed by the Act. Vacancies during the term are filled by the remaining Benchers. The Judges of the Superior Courts are visitors of the Society, and, on the first day of Easter Term, annually, the Benchers appoint one of their body to be Treasurer, who is also President of the Society. Benchers sit in convocation every term for the call of Barristers, the admission of Attorneys and Solicitors to practise, and of Students to enter the Society, the fees paid by whom form the revenue of the Society tees paid by whom form the revenue of the Society. Osgoode, Hall, appropriately named after the first Chief Justice, is the Ontario "Inn of Court," or headquarters of the Society, in which is provided accommodation for the Courts of Equity, and the Court of Appeal, and for the sittings in term of the Superior Courts; with a valuable and extensive library.
