

CARMACK MURDER

TRIAL IS BEING HEARD

Youth Who Confesses to Crime in Fine Spirits During the Cross-examination.

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 22.—Expectation that all the resources of the prosecution would today be brought to bear upon the young man who swears he shot and killed former U. S. Senator Carmack led to another big crowd at the Copper-Sharp trial. The young man himself, Robin Cooper, looked fresh and buoyant. He seemed to welcome the ordeal and his sister, too, seemed to be in fine spirits. Before cross-examination began Judge Anderson asked young Cooper if he knew Senator Carmack.

"Yes, sir, I knew him and he knew me."

"That's all," the questioner then said.

Attorney-General McCann then took the witness in hand and introduced to Senator Carmack "he said."

"I do not remember whether I ever was introduced to him. I knew him all my life."

That he was a lawyer and that he had a great deal of pardon work was brought out next and the attorney-general then asked Cooper if his practice was not particularly to see Governor Patterson and the pardon board.

"It appeared before both," he answered.

Cooper said he got $750 for obtaining a pardon for Jesse Lindner, who had been sentenced to fifteen years, but served only about ten years.

The drift of the questions was evidently to show Cooper's connection with Governor Patterson, how influential they were, and thus to strengthen the conspiracy theory.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS.

(From Friday's Daily.)

The Provincial Gazette this week contains notice of the following appointments:

Frank F. Siemens, of Renata, West Kootenay, to be a justice of the peace in and for the province of British Columbia.

Miss Telphi Taylor, to be stenographer to the minister of public works, from the 21st day of January, 1909.

Wm. Forsyth, of Vancouver, to be third assistant at the juvenile reformatory.

Andrew Noble, Jr., of Kamloops, to be convict guard in the provincial jail at Kamloops.

Richard Tison Heneker, of the city of Montreal, K. C., to be a commissioner for taking affidavits within and for the province of Quebec for use in the courts of British Columbia.

ADMIRAL'S GOOD WISHES.

The Imperial Service Club has received from Admiral Lord Charles Beresford a photo of himself in reply to a request sent at the time New Year's greetings were extended to him.

Accompanying the photograph was a letter in which Lord Charles Beresford says:

"I thank you for your letter of the 2nd inst. I wish you every success in organizing the service club for men who are serving or have served in the navy or army. The success appears to have been pronounced as you already have 150 members and tell me you are in a flourishing condition as regards finances. Remember me to any of the old comrades who may have served with me in different parts of the Empire. I thank you heartily for your good wishes for the new year."

The photo will in future find a place on the walls of the club room.

THRILLING RECOVERY OF BODY IN NIAGARA FALLS

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Feb. 22.—Soon after noon to-day a middle aged man was seen by a number of spectators on the banks of the falls, to slip while endeavoring to cross the river on the ice mountain below the falls, and disappear into the water under the ice.

The body was recovered later by Peter Page, an employee of the new elevator in the park reservation. The recovery was a thrilling one. A man with ropes tied about him, slid down the mountain of ice and was lowered into the crevice under the falls, where he found the body and brought it to the top of the ice mountain. The victim is apparently about 40 years of age, very well dressed and of medium size. Nothing has as yet been found by which he can be identified.

—Hon. William Templeman entertained a number of gentlemen at dinner at the Empress hotel on Friday.

Those present included J. A. Macdonald and members of the opposition in the provincial legislature, Wm. Sloan, and the presidents and secretaries of the Liberal Association and the Young Men's Liberal Club. An informal toast list elicited speeches from Hon. Mr. Templeman, Wm. Sloan, J. A. Macdonald, M. P. P., John Oliver, M. P. P., Dr. King, M. P. P., Kerwin, M. P. P., H. C. Brewster, M. P. P., G. R. Naden, M. P. P., G. A. B. Hall, M. P. P., John Jardine, M. P. P., J. M. Yors-ton, M. P. P., Stewart Henderson, M. P. P., Major Currie, Dr. Milne, John Nelson and others.

—Victoria Hives, No. 1, Ladies of the Macabees, will hold a reunion meeting on Tuesday evening, and every member is expected to be present to answer to the role call. Members of the Baxter and Queen Alexandra Hives are also cordially invited to be present.

An address will be given by Mrs. R. S. Day, provincial president of the Women's Council, which will prove of exceptional interest to all members of the order.

HEAVY CARGO ON BLUE FUNNEL LINER

Details of Ramming of Japanese Liner by French Mail Steamer.

The Blue Funnel liner Keemun arrived from Liverpool yesterday via Singapore and Hongkong and other ports with a cargo of something like 8,000 tons, and a number of stowage passengers, eleven of whom landed here. Although she had on board over one thousand tons of freight for this port she did not land any of it, but will return in a few days to discharge, after she has visited Puget Sound ports.

Just before the liner left Japan the new European liner, the Kitan Maru, of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, was launched at Nagasaki. The new vessel is 455 feet long, is of 7,300 horse power, and will have a speed of 16 knots. This brings the tonnage of the company up to 300,000 gross.

Further particulars were brought of the collision taking place between the French mail steamer Sydney and the collier, the Ibur Maru. The Japanese steamer apparently made a false move as she was being overtaken by the Frenchman, with the result that the latter rammed her in the stern with such force that the bow of the Sydney penetrated more than six feet.

The vessels remained locked until the crew from the collier had all been transhipped to the Sydney. These numbered thirty-eight. Ten minutes later the Ibur began to settle and gradually sank. Before disappearing her bow rose from the water and she dove down by the stern. The Sydney was not much damaged.

"It appeared before both," he answered.

Cooper said he got $750 for obtaining a pardon for Jesse Lindner, who had been sentenced to fifteen years, but served only about ten years.

The drift of the questions was evidently to show Cooper's connection with Governor Patterson, how influential they were, and thus to strengthen the conspiracy theory.

AMERICAN STEAMERS TO CALL AT RUPERT

City of Seattle to Initiate Service in April Next.

City of Seattle to Initiate Service in April Next.

Beginning with the voyage of the steamer City of Seattle, leaving Seattle April 4th, the Skagway line will make regular calls, northbound, at Prince Rupert. This announcement has been made by the Pacific Coast Steamship Company. Under this arrangement the City of Seattle will take freight and passengers from Seattle for Prince Rupert. On the return passage from Skagway to Seattle the liner will stop at the Grand Trunk terminus if business is offering. While no definite arrangements have been made for the steamer Cottage City to call at Prince Rupert, this liner will also make the port should it be found necessary. With the opening of spring, the company anticipates a heavy travel to Prince Rupert. This is the first time that Seattle-Skagway steamers have been scheduled regularly for Prince Rupert except during the heavy summer travel.

AT ANCHOR IN HAMPTON ROADS

At the streak of the coming day the residents of Norfolk, Newport News, Hampton and other nearby places began to make their way to some previously selected point of vantage along the borders of the ocean or bay.

The battleships picked up their regular cruising speed of ten knots an hour early this morning after a night of comparative rest. Brasswork polished to a degree of unequalled brilliancy and wherever paint had been marred on the journey home fresh coats of white and buff applied to the sides and superstructures during yesterday's wait off the Cape made the ships as immaculate in appearance as on the day they sailed away.

When the battleships pointed their bows at daylight for the gateway of the roads, the Mayflower, with the president and his party on board, was steaming down Chesapeake Bay to the anchorage grounds at the tail of the horseshoe where fourteen months ago the president had stood on the bridge of the same ship.

The outgoing fleet and bid it God speed. To-day the president addressed not only the officers of the fleet gathered upon the quarter deck of the Mayflower, but he visited as well the four divisions of flagships and there he addressed the crews in terms of enthusiastic compliment.

The Mayflower had not long lain at anchor when the tracings of smoke on the horizon told of the approach of the fleet, and out into the distance the fleet grew rapidly until at last the end of the white column in front could be distinguished. While the leading ships were still a mile distant from the Mayflower, a puff of white smoke from the forward bridge of the Connecticut, followed by a muffled boom as the sound waves followed more closely the dashes waves of light served as signal to all the fleet that the ships had "made out" the president's flag on the Mayflower. It was also the signal of "Home at last," and it made the hearts of 14,000 men and 600 officers beat quicker in realization that the day that they had looked forward to through all the period of lavish hospitality abroad had at last arrived.

That first gun of the Connecticut's national salute to the president found every ship in the line with the saluting cannon ready, and the second order puff from the flagship had not sounded when the guns of all others had begun to speak in unison the honors due the chief executive.

The fleet was almost lost to view when the saluting was in progress, but the clearing veil of smoke flashed the ships into view in a far more brilliant picture than had been the first glimpse far down on the horizon. The president made his way to the bridge of the Mayflower while the saluting was in progress. He had not long to wait before the imposing line was bearing right down upon the reviewing boat. The Connecticut and all the ships in her furrowed wake were dressing for filing in review. It was not until they had come to anchor off the old point pier two hours later that the rainbow dressing lines were strung from stern to stern across the mast-heads, and the ships took to dress when the presence of the president demands when ships are resting in port, and which were hoisted as well to-day in honor of George Washington's birthday.

In the old days, while Vancouver Island was yet a separate colony, the Hudson's Bay Company deeded to the trust eight waterfront lots for the purpose of constructing an esplanade. These lie between what has since become the C. P. R. docks and the B. C. Soap Company's factory, a proximity which makes the property undesirable for the purpose for which it is held in trust. The city desires to keep it, however, but to be enabled to use it for some such purpose as a public wharf.

There are several bathhouses moored in front of this property and the owners were desirous of resubdividing the mayor and city solicitor. Some amusement was caused when it developed that two of the "trespassers" are Chief Justice Hunter and Hon. F. J. Fulton, commissioner of lands. Mr. Fulton admitted having his bathhouse there but denied the trespass.

The government will look into the matter of the city's request.

Hon. Mr. Fulton promised to insert a clause in the new Water Act to make it clear that Victoria's rights in regard to water within the twenty-mile radius are not interfered with by the act.

—Great interest is being taken in the bull, catfoddl and spring flower show to be held in the palm room of the Empress hotel during Easter week, under the auspices of the Daughters of Pity. A wild flower collection will be one of the features, and a prize will be given to the donor of the most beautiful collection. No more than fifty flowers could have been chosen for a display of flowers than the palm room of the Empress, which has been placed at the disposal of the Daughters of Pity by the courtesy of Mr. Humble. Music will be furnished both afternoon and evening during the exhibition.
