ROWDYISM IN FAIRVILLE.

Yesterday afternoon Fairville was the scene of some rowdylsm on the part of five young toughs of that place. About five o'clock they forced their way into the house of Minard Akerley, near the Fairville brick yard and destroyed considerable furniture. Officer Lawson hearing of the occurrence made his appearance, but was kept at a distance by bricks and other dangerous missiles. The officer retired for assistance and the toughs adjourned to the house of Mary Morris, on Main street. Into this place they forced an entry, seriously hurting Mrs. Morris. They then escaped before the police could lay hands on them. They are known and will probably be arrested at any time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Irvine and Miss Mrs. Frank Neason will receive her friends on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons of this week at 91 Victoria street, North End.

There will be a meeting of the Tinsmiths' Union tomorrow (Tuesday), in the usual place when a large attendance is requested.

E. S. Ritchie appeared for Littlejohn, while C. N. Skinner, K. C., represented the crown.

The first witness to be examined was constitutes a prize fight and what a sparring contest. In the present case he believed that the contest had assumed the characteristics of a prize fight, warranting the interference of the police.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Irvine and Miss Irvine have returned from Toronto.

Frank Mullins, Church street, returned home last night from New York. Miss Carrie Caldwell, who has been visiting Mrs. E. Herrington, Portland street, left for New York Saturday.

During the service in St. Stephen's church last evening the electric light went out. A number of oil lamps were scured and the service finished as if nothing had happened.

Residents of Coburg street have lately lost some plants by sneak thieves. Those who have suffered losses of valuable plants in this way are Mrs. Margaret Pugsley and Mrs. Edward Wilson.

Dr. Fred Bayfield, formerly of the hospital staff here, and now medical officer on the Cunard Liner Slavonia, was in the city on Saturday on his way back to New York after a visit to be requested.

Stinner. The witness, however, stoutly maintained that the contest was only one of ordinary sparring, such as he had participated in many a time. Blows were struck, he said, but they were not of a dangerous character. McLeod knocked Littlejohn down and he (witness) as referee, counted him out. Counting out did not necessarily mean that Littlejohn was knocked out or rendered insensible. Witness admits the tity on Saturday on his way back to New York after a visit to his home in P. I.

An entertainment will be held in the Carleton Methodist church tomorrow evening at which the annual opening of the mite boxes of the Women's Mission Band will take place. A programme will be carried out by the members of the band. There will also be a sale of handkerchiefs and homemade candy and an exhibit of Chinese and Japanese curios.

An entertainment will be held in the which one man pounded another into unconsciousness or into a state of inshifted one man in inflicting injury on another under such circumstances. It was an exhibition of cruelty, which the law would never countenance. Both men met by agreement for a prize, the person knocked out to receive 40 per cent of the gate receipts, and the person who knocked him out 60 per cent. If such was not a prize fight, what in the name of reason would be.
