GAMBLING HELL FOR N. Y.
SOCIETY WOMEN RAIDED.
New French Maid Proved the Undoing of Fashionable Pool Room--Women of Wealth and Prominence Were Arrested.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—The Sun today says: Carelessness in the address of a French maid proved the undoing of a pool room for women in a brown stone house on West Fifty Eighth street yesterday. Inspector W. McLaughlin for nearly a month has been trying to get evidence to raid it. He detailed detectives on the case and they had been watching the house daily.
According to the sleuths the pool room was frequented by women of wealth and prominence on the west side, who went to it in their carriages and automobiles. One woman who lives not far from Central Park west and 72nd street was followed from the place a week ago. Detectives Younce and O'Brien in top hats and frock coats followed this woman to her home and found her quite willing to talk. She had a grievance owing to a bad tip

CALL MONEY BRINGS 125 PER CENT
IN NEW YORK; ALL RECORDS BROKEN.
NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—The call money market opened strong again today. The first loan reported was $200,000 at the rate of 30 per cent. per annum. After leading at 100 today there were loans at another loan of $200,000 at 60 per cent.
At 10.35 the quotation was 80 per cent. The advance in the interest rate was sensationally rapid. From 80 and then was a quick advance to 75, 80 and then 100 per cent. When 100 per cent. was touched all records since December, 1899, were broken. In that year 188 per cent. was paid for call loans. After leading at 100 today there were loans at 90 per cent.
At 10.55 the 90 per cent. quotation did not last long. At 11 o'clock 110 per cent. was paid for funds.
Shortly after 11 o'clock a loan of $400,000 at 125 per cent. was reported.

300 C. P. R. EMPLOYES
HERE GET MORE PAY.
A despatch from Montreal states that the trackmen on the C. P. R. lines from Fort William to this city have been granted an increase in wages. Section men will receive $3.25 per day, the former figure was $1.40. Track foremen will be advanced from $1.90 to $2.10 and bridge foremen from $2.80 to $3.25.
The Atlantic division of the C. P. R. from Montreal to St. John will be considerably affected by this increase or at least the men will be considerably benefited as it means an increase to over three hundred men.

LOUIS F. PAYN FLATLY
DENIES GRAFT CHARGES.
NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—This was the 55th day of sessions held by the Insurance Investigating Committee, and Chairman Armstrong announced that the first volume of the printed testimony appeared today. It has 85 pages and covers but the first two days of the committee's work.
Former superintendent of insurance, Louis F. Pavn, was the first witness called today and the investigation of the Mutual Reserve by the state insurance department, in 1899, was resumed. Mr. Pavn said of the charges made by officers and employees, that he made up his mind that nothing President F. B. Burnham, or J. C. Wells, formerly vice-president of the Mutual Reserve Company said was worthy of consideration. In regard to fitting charges of mismanagement Mr. Pavn said he gave no attention to it. These matters were turned over to the New York office of the department. Mr. Pavn said the charge made by Jas. D. Wells, former vice-president of the Mutual Reserve Life Company, that $40,000 had been paid to Mr. Pavn by the Mutual Reserve for allowing the company to write its own report of an investigation by the insurance department, was absolutely false in every particular. He said it grew out of the fight between Mr. Wells and President Burnham.

BACKBONE OF REVOLUTION
BROKEN; GOING TO PIECES.
H. R. EMMERSON, JR.,
MARRIED TODAY.
Son of Minister of Railways
Wedded in Parrsboro.
One of the Most Brilliant Functions Ever Witnessed There—Distinguished Array of Guests.

(Special to the Star.)
PARRSBORO, N. B., Dec. 28.—One of the most brilliant functions ever witnessed here and one that in some respects surpassed any previous affair of the kind, took place in the Baptist church at eight o'clock this morning, when Henry Reid Emerson, son of the Hon. H. R. Emerson, Minister of Railways, and Miss Faulein Beate Price, daughter of Oliver Lebaron Price were united in the bonds of wedlock. Rev. F. M. Young, pastor of the church officiated.
The bride is one of the fairest and sweetest daughters of a county famed for the fairness and sweetness of its maidens. She is a native of Parrsboro and is a member of the church. She was attended by Miss Emily Emerson, sister of the groom, who was given in pink silk with white chiffon silk with trimmings of real lace and orange blossoms. She wore a veil and carried a magnificent bouquet.
The groom was supported by his cousin, Edwin D. Record, of Boston, formerly of Moncton.
The ushers were Harry Bowes, of Dorchester and Tilly Price, brother of the bride.
Miss Maud Corbett was organist and gave an excellent rendition of Mendelssohn's wedding march and an appropriate hymn. It was beautifully rendered by singers from the choir of the town church.
The guests from a distance arrived yesterday afternoon in the private car of the Minister of Railways and comprised Hon. H. R. Emerson and his daughters Emily, Marian and Bernice, Amasa Kilham, uncle of the bride and his daughter, the bride's mother, Mrs. Thos. Henderson of Moncton, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Deacon of Toronto, Mrs. Henry Reid of Sackville and Mrs. Emerson of Moncton and Mrs. Atkinson of British Columbia. The groom elect and his mother, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson of Parrsboro, were also of the party which was graced by the presence of the venerable grandmothers of the groom, Mrs. Emerson and Mrs. Record.
After the ceremony at the church the newly wedded pair and about 50 guests partook of an elaborate wedding feast at the home of the bride's parents. At eleven o'clock the bridal party left in the car of the Minister of Railways for Parrsboro, where Mr. and Mrs. Emerson will take the express for Boston. They will visit Detroit, Toledo, Cleveland, Toronto, Ottawa and Montreal, returning to Dorchester and Parrsboro. After spending a few days here they will reside in Cleveland where they will reside. Mr. Emerson being a civil engineer in the employ of a big oil company in that city.
The bride's going-away gown was of dark green brocade with hat to match. The bride presents were numerous and valuable, sterling silver and cut glass being very much in evidence. She included a cheque for a handsome amount from the groom's father.
The bride will be greatly missed as she is very popular in the community and her place will not be easily filled. She has a host of friends, who while rejoicing in her happiness will regret her departure from Parrsboro.

SCOTCH DISTILLERS SUE
ST. JOHN IMITATORS.
James Buchanan & Co., Accuses James McCarthy of Copying Their "Black and White" Whiskey Label.
An important case is being aired in the police court today whereby David O. Roblin, the dominant representative of the James Buchanan Co., of London, England, is taking a criminal action against James McCarthy, the Dock street liquor dealer, for handling bottles of whiskey labelled very similarly to the Buchanan whiskey label. Mr. Roblin says he is for the purpose of defrauding. A large number of liquor dealers have been named as witnesses, and after the criminal proceedings are finished an action for damages will be brought by the Buchanan Co.
Mr. Roblin made information before Judge Ritchie that he believed James McCarthy to have unlawfully in his possession for sale, and exposing for sale, and sold certain goods and things, to which a mark was falsely applied resembling so nearly as to be calculated to deceive, a certain trade mark registered in the trade mark registry in accordance with a trade mark design act by James Buchanan, trading as James Buchanan and Co., and which the said trade mark consists of an oblong label, bearing the following words, "Scotch Whiskey. Black and White. Specially Selected for the House of Commons, James Buchanan & Co., Scotch Whiskey Merchants, Glasgow, Leith and London. Distillery, Glentworth, Mulben, Glenlivet, N. B." The name of James Buchanan and Co. appeared as a fac simile signature on the pattern affixed to the information.
Mr. Roblin claims that the whiskey bottles from McCarthy's are very similar to the House of Commons "Black and White," and that it is called House of Commons Scotch Whiskey.
Mr. Roblin was the first witness and said he had been representative of his company since August last. The Buchanan goods come to Canada in bottles. The label is the same shade and type the wording about the same and in fact a person would have to make a close observation before he could discern the difference in the label on the Black and White bottle and the Scotch bottle. The popular brand is known as Black and White and Mr. James Buchanan to effect similar labels to his bottles.
A bottle bearing a somewhat similar label was produced and Mr. Roblin declared was a fraud and that McCarthy had no authority to use such a label. He had first located the falsely labelled goods at Halifax where the merchant said that he thought he was buying Buchanan's whiskey. He also saw similar goods in St. John and was informed by merchants that it had been sold them by Mr. McCarthy. The name of John Buchan is on the Senate bottle. Mr. Roblin says there is no such distiller and there is no Senate in England.
Messrs. Haley, Wm. H. O'Keefe, J. J. Connors, James C. Doherty, Wm. H. Pine, Frank D. Mullins, proprietors of saloons were called and told of David A. McLeod canvassing them and selling the Senate whiskey labelled similar to the Black and White.
The case was adjourned until 2

CLERKS AND EXPRESSMEN
IN THEFT CONSPIRACY.
TORONTO, Ont., Dec. 28.—Two clerks in the employ of Michie & Co., grocers and liquor dealers, King street west, and seven drivers of delivery wagons are under arrest charged with systematically thieving from the company. The prisoners are John Morrison, his son, Ernest Ernest Wolfe, aged 22, laborer; Frank Anderson, aged 19, laborer; Roy Mortimer, aged twenty-one, clerk; Henry Buckle, laborer; Wm. Rutledge, aged twenty-three, laborer; and Fred Jones, aged 25, clerk. Mortimer and Jones are employees in the liquor store, and it is charged that they were in league with the drivers, and that the stealing has been going on for many months.

REVOLVER AND KNIFE USED.
The Star last evening stated that an attendant at a road house had been assaulted by two men on Christmas morning and that he had been badly beaten and that the matter would be taken to the courts. The Star has since learned that the man charged with the assault was quite badly cut with a knife and that in self-defence was obliged to use a revolver and fire three shots.

REBELS VANQUISHED IN BATTLES IN MOSCOW STREETS--ONLY GUERRILLA WARFARE NOW.

MOSCOW, Wednesday, Dec. 27, 3 p. m., via St. Petersburg, Dec. 28.—The city of Moscow bears the picturesque appearance of a battlefield. Officers are everywhere seen galloping through the streets or being driven about in rapidly moving sleighs accompanied by escorts of Dragoon or Cossack. The center of the city for the first time today showed signs of life, the stores re-opening and the inhabitants who had been cooped up for five days were venturing out for a breath of fresh air.
The troops began operations this morning at the Trinitzkiy Arva, bombarding and demolishing an immense barricade, near the car stables of the Belgian Company, which had been built behind overturned tram cars. These slowly pivoting from the arch the columns swept eastward clearing all the streets off from Tverskaya and north of the boulevard, which separated the battle ground from the center of the city. Barricades were not so numerous in this region as was the case during yesterday's fighting and the troops encountered less opposition. A correspondent of the Associated Press, accompanied one of the columns for an hour during which time the members of the "Trinitzkiy" nowhere attempted to hold the barricades. After firing a few shots they invariably scampered off.

ONTARIO INCREASES GRANT TO SALVATION ARMY.
TORONTO, Ont., Dec. 28.—It is likely that the government's grant to the Salvation Army on account of colonization and immigration work of this organization will be substantially increased next year over the $4,000 given for 1905.
Commissioner Coombs and several of his officers interviewed the premier and some other ministers yesterday in relation to next year's immigration schemes. The commissioner said that England on January 13th to confer with General Booth as to the army's immigration and colonization plans for the whole of Canada.
Premier Whitney informed the delegation that the work of the Salvation Army in Ontario in relation to immigration was most valuable.
