INTENSE SUFFERING AT KINGSTON STILL CAUSING GREAT ALARM

Section of Kingston from the Harbor.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—News from Kingston, Jamaica, is still filtering in slowly and is twenty-four hours late, but the worst is now apparently known. The town itself is a wreck, few of the houses standing, remaining habitable and the populace is living in the open. Food and medical supplies continue scarce, but relief ships are hurrying to the stricken city from many quarters. There will soon be alleviation from all suffering in this respect. The death list is probably about 700, and the seriously injured in hospitals numbering in the neighborhood of 500.

SUFFERING IS GREAT. NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—A Kingston, Ja., despatch to the Herald, says that the battleship Missouri, lying off the penitentiary, over-awed the unruly convicts by firing two rounds of blank cartridges and landing an armed party. The help was thankfully received by the government. The correspondents reports that the inmates of the insane asylum are at large, but he says that in the present mind nearly all of Kingston is crazed. Many persons were rendered insane by the shock the most notable being Gerald Lowder, well-known in London. A despatch from Holland Bay says great suffering exists among the poor of Jamaica. A delegation of fifty sufferers appealed to the Governor for the systematic distribution of relief. The spokesman said many were dying of neglect. It is charged that those with money had been supplied with food and medicines. Port Royal had again sunk and geysers are springing up in the streets. The land has now subsided eight feet. The American consulate was wrecked. The acting consul tried yesterday to get a cable despatch to the state department asking for help. One has to travel all night in a small boat and on horseback to reach Holland Bay, from which cable messages are sent.

QUANTITIES OF FOOD. KINGSTON, Jan. 19.—The U. S. warship Indiana and Missouri arrived this morning from Guatamao bringing large quantities of medicines and food. The torpedo boat destroyer Whipple arrived during the night with a boat load of medicine which was sent ashore in charge of surgeon McDonald. The cruiser Yankton is expected to arrive here soon. Many Americans who were in Kingston at the time of the disaster have been taken aboard the warship. They intend to take passage for the United States aboard the Hamburg-American steamer Prinzess Luise, but that vessel ran ashore near the wreck of the steamer Prinzess Luise last night. The Plum Point lighthouse was smashed by the earthquake and vessels arriving at night have no lights to steer by. The steamer Prinz Waldemar is also hard ashore. The wrecked Premier has gone to the aid of the stranded vessel. Several shocks of earthquake were felt last night. Four hundred and twenty dead were buried up to last night. The remaining bodies are being cremated; the death list is now believed to be about 700. The work of clearing the streets of debris is being pushed. Dynamite is being used to blow down some of the ruins. The water supply has been improved but food is very scarce and the prices thereof are exorbitant. A remarkable incident of the earthquake has just come to light. An English clerk in a store was buried under falling walls following the earthquake on Monday and over this for many hours great fires swept. Wednesday the clerk was dug out alive. His injuries are not severe. Five hundred persons are still under treatment in the hospitals.

FOLLOWED WOMAN WHO WAS DRUNK

Shameful Action of Crowd on Street Last Night.

Refused to Allow Maud Lester to Accompany in Peace the Man Who Befriended Her.

It is a question who is to blame for Maud Lester's present predicament. The unfortunate young woman is well known in police circles but only as a drunk. Last evening she was intoxicated and was able to navigate but a large crowd of men, women and boys followed her along Union street to Charlotte street. Here a man who took pity on the unfortunate creature took her by the arm and started to help her to the house where she works as a domestic. She was quite willing to go home and to get clear of the crowd on Charlotte street she was followed through King Square, but this did not stop the crowd who followed her and the man into the Square. Policeman Marshall, seeing that the harness drunken woman was being cared for, broke up the crowd, but they formed again near the corner of Princess and Charlotte, and with her mind whirling with drink the Lester woman, seeing that she was the object of attraction, refused to move a step further and this seemed to amuse the crowd of followers, some of whom seemed delighted at the spectacle. Policeman Marshall then ordered the woman to go home and stay there or she would be arrested. She was placed in the vestibule of her home and it is said women have been quiet had not the crowd gathered about the door. This seemed to anger her for she again came on the street when the police had left and was once more followed by a seemingly amused gang along Charlotte street. This was her last chance for when she reached Charlotte street Policeman Marshall and Nelson took hold of her and, there being no patrol wagon, had to drag her through the snow to the Central Station. The crowd of eight-seers did not disband until the woman was placed behind the bars in Central Station and there being no more excitement they dispersed. This morning the woman was fined $8 or two months jail, and being short of funds, went to jail.

WALLACE BROWN WAS KILLED AT SAID POINT

Met Terrible Death on Board Donaldson Liner Today --- Caught in Wench and Horribly Crushed --- Arms and Head Taken Off.

A terrible death was met by Wallace Brown, the well known stevedore, this morning. Shortly after one o'clock he was caught in the wench on the Donaldson liner Athenia and was crushed to death. The accident happened just as the work on the steamer started for the afternoon. Mr. Brown was walking across the deck when he was caught by the wench wire. As soon as his perilous position was noticed, word was sent to stop the engine, but before the machine had been brought to a standstill Mr. Brown had been twisted around and killed.

The body of the unfortunate man was terribly mutilated. Both arms were taken off and also the head. A ghastly sight met the eyes of those who bore Mr. Brown's body from the wench onto the deck of the steamer. News of the fatality soon spread, and a large crowd gathered at the wharf where the Athenia is lying. Coroner Kenney was at once summoned, and he arrived at the Athenia a few minutes later.

Coroner Kenney stated that he has not yet decided whether or not he will hold an inquest. The deceased was a well known official in the ship laborers' unions, a prominent member of the Sons of England and for years a most prominent sergeant in the 3rd Regt. Canadian Artillery. He was a jovial, good natured fellow and highly esteemed by his fellow workmen and social companions.

MOSES C. BARBOUR PASSED AWAY TODAY

Prominent in St. John's Business History --- Much Respected Citizen

Moses C. Barbour, aged 83 years, one of the best known dry goods men in the Lower Canada, passed away at his home, Wright street, shortly before 9 o'clock this forenoon, after a week's illness with pleuro-pneumonia. About ten days ago Mr. Barbour fell on a flight of stairs in a manufacturing building, resulting in a severe shaking up. A cold set in followed by pneumonia, and though every attention was rendered Mr. Barbour gradually sank. Possibly no man in local business affairs is more respected than was the late gentleman, who for some years had been representing several dry goods manufacturing houses in this section of the province. He was a man of straightforward, gentlemanly dealing, of sociable disposition, and even temperament at all times.

Mr. Barbour was married twice. His first wife was Miss Eliza Estabrook, of Fredericton, and by that union the children are: Herbert Barbour, dry goods traveller of Kentville, and Mrs. H. W. Goddard, of King street, east. Mrs. Jas. W. Barnes, of this city, is a granddaughter. Mr. Barbour's second wife was Lucy, widow of Gilbert Robinson, her demise having occurred several years ago. Miss Grace Smith has been of the Barbour household nearly all her life, and is the only surviving member. George Barbour and William Barbour, of this city, are brothers of deceased, as is also Henry, of California, is a sister.

Before the St. John fire the late citizen conducted a thriving business of his own on Prince William street. In this fire, Mr. Barbour found it impossible to gather up the various threads of his affairs, and retired from the proprietorship, identifying himself with Thos. R. Jones' large wholesale dry goods concern.

When Ward C. Pittfield succeeded to the Jones' business on Canterbury St. Mr. Barbour still retained his position as superintendent, which office he filled until the closing down of that house, when he took up agency work. Up to a few years ago Mr. Barbour was active in Baptist circles, occupying the superintendency of Brussels street Sunday school for successive terms. He was a man of much liberality and sympathy, dispensing charity with a lavish hand, and in his removal a large number of people will feel keenly the loss of a true and trusty friend.

Mrs. Edw. Farmer, of Holyoke, Mass. (nee Bonner of this city), arrived at noon, being summoned home on account of Mr. Barbour's serious illness. Mrs. Farmer lived with Mr. Barbour from childhood.

THE AMHERST BONSPIEL.

AMHERST, N. S., Jan. 19.—Mr. Giggey, of Hampton, won in the final of the governor's general's trophy this morning, being Mr. Fuller, of Amherst, 16 to 10. Hampton rink will thus carry home the trophy. Rogers, of Amherst, wins the Fraser trophy. In the final he defeated Dunham (Charlottetown), 14 to 8. The inter-provincial trophy goes to New Glasgow, Marshall and McKenzie of that town in the final and will play off at home. The double rink competition will finish this afternoon.

BOYS SENT TO INDUSTRIAL HOME

One Allowed to Go; Another Laid Sick in Jail.

Mothers Must Take Care of Their Children Says Magistrate Ritchie—Stiff Sentences Handed Out

Magistrate Ritchie set this morning for the sentencing of a number of remands. One woman claimed that her boy had been home from school for a couple of months so that he could carry water for her. Another with a fur about her neck said that her boy played truant from school and did not go to the Opera House, while the boy informed the court that he washed clothes, but did not attend school as he had no boots or overcoat. The excuses given however did not suit with the magistrate's judgment, and he instanced a case in the West End where a woman kept her boy from school to mind the baby while she washed clothes, the result was the baby was neglected and the police caught the boy in a store robbing the till.

His honor advised the parents to leave court as their boys having little or no education, and very little or no knowledge of the bible, would be better away from their homes and placed in the Industrial Home where they would be cared for. Stanley Horton, aged 13, charged with stealing, admitted having played truant from school for the past two months. He was able however to recite the commandments to the court this morning and allowed to go home with his father, with the understanding that he should attend school every day and on Sunday school, and on Sunday he is to leave at the home of the magistrate a certificate from the public school teacher regarding his attendance, and that he must not attend the Opera House or Kelt's Theatre without being with his father or brother. Should he fail to live up to this for the next four years he will be sent to the Industrial Home for the next four years.

The other four boys did not fare so well. Harold Kilfoyle was sentenced to the Industrial Home for four years, Peter Hapenny to three years and three months, and Louis Walsh three years. George Watson is sick in jail and was not able to appear in court for sentence, but when able it is expected he too will go to the home where he will receive proper attention.

FIRE IN HOUSE OF W. E. MCINTYRE

About 8.35 o'clock this morning the fire department were called out by an alarm from Box 4 for a fire in the basement of Eliza Chif on Colongue street, owned and occupied by W. E. McIntyre. The fire is supposed to have started from the furnace pipes and had a good start when discovered. The first floors, parlors and hall walls had to be torn away considerably before the fire could be extinguished and the fire was handled well. The furniture in this section of the house was nearly all saved by the Salvage Corps. The house was filled with smoke, which also caused considerable damage. The loss will be about $1,000 damage.
