LIVERPOOL AND LONDON Fire and Life Insurance Co.

Subscribed Capital, $1,000,000.

THE 18th Annual General Meeting of the Company was held at Liverpool on the 15th Feb'y last, when the following Report of the business of the Company during the past year was submitted:

Receipts, £38,654	£13,612
Losses, 50,991	43,846
Profits, £33,663	£13,766

These results show, notwithstanding the very numerous and destructive fires that have occurred both in this country and especially in America, that great caution has been exercised in taking policy, on the part of those whose judgment the Directors must necessarily in a great measure rely.

THE PRINTER.

Who is he that with stick and rod, chastises well the knave and fool? And keeps in awe the petty thief?

Who is he that brings you from a far, intelligence of a bloody war? Or of some ill-omened tar?

THE NAPIER AND THE GRAHAM.

A NAUTICAL VARIETY.

THE ADMIRAL—The Fine Lord is discovered in an easy chair, and reading the papers, apparently newly imported from some distant port.

Sir James (mildly)—But my dear Sir Charles, welcome home; welcome to the shores of old England, the land of the free, ha! give us your hand, my old sea-dog!

Sir Charles (smiling)—But my dear Sir James, I don't think I have any business here.

REST OF THE SABBATH.

The North British Review illustrates the importance of sufficient sleep, on a point which the history of the Sabbath has long since settled.

The Creator has given us an interval of rest—sleep—and a moral restoration—Sabbath-keeping; and it is vain to dispute with either. Under the pressure of high excitement, individuals have passed weeks together with little sleep or none; but when the process is long continued, the over-driven powers rebel, and fever, delirium, and death come on.

THE IDENTITY OF ROME AND BABYLON.

THE POPE THE LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE OF RELIGION—THE NAME OF THE SEAT AND THE NUMBER OF HIS NAME.

The glory of Christ is intimately connected with the exposure of the blasphemous pretensions of the papacy. Every one whose heart beats true to the rights of God, must regard as a necessary consequence of that truth, the exposure of the papacy.
