Mr. Bonhoe who has been staying with Col. and Mrs. Stewart leaves for England this week.

Surg. Major Lee-Tall has received orders to leave by next mail. His successor has already been on this station and was very popular.

The Bazaar was the first of the season to arrive. It was summary to see the blue jackets, though no doubt they heartily wished it were summer.

Halifax society will regret to hear of the death of Mrs. Reginald White which occurred suddenly in England on Thursday last week.

The marriage of Miss Kate Kenny and Mr. Bridson, B.N. took place last week at the Langham hotel in London, and was attended by Mrs. and Miss Daly, Admiral and Mrs. Farr, Captain and Mrs. Francis, Colonel and Mrs. Will and many of the brides friends and relatives at present in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker of the Grove are about to leave Halifax and will be very much missed by their many friends. I believe a testimonial is on foot among her many friends to present Mrs. Tucker with a token of their regard for her.

The recital at the conservatory of music on Friday evening was as usual well attended. The programme was most creditable performed by the persons whose names appeared on it.

I am informed that the Crescent will not be here till the first of June and also that Mrs. Eekins is going to England and will spend very little time in Halifax.

Mrs. M. R. Morrow returns this week from Bermuda very much improved in health. Mrs. Arthur Nagle who has been wintering in Jamaica also returns this week.

PROGRESS is for sale in Antigonish at J. R. McIlhenny & Co's book store.

MAY 7.—Society has been very full here for some time, the ladies, and gentlemen too, have been very busy engaged at house cleaning, quite an number are having their houses painted and their walls papered.

There has been a very delightful weather since May came in and every one seems to take advantage of the beautiful days for enjoyment, except the ones who are too much engaged at their business, and even those seem to have a more cheerful appearance than when the days were dull and cold.

Quite a number of new cottages are going up this summer. Mr. Fred Trotter is building a snug cottage near his present home and it is rumored can be depended on their will be a happy bond of union between a well known young man and a Halifax lady.

The many friends of Dr. A. J. Chisholm will be very sorry to hear of his very serious illness, he has been quite delirious for some time but hopes are entertained that he will come through under the skillful treatment of Dr. Huntly.

Mr. Cameron's little boy has been laid up with diphtheria and it is very doubtful if he will pull through. The family have the heartfelt sympathy of a host of friends in their sad trouble.

Death has been visiting our town and on Sunday one of the fairest of our young ladies was called away in the person of Miss M. Chisholm daughter of Mr. Roderick Chisholm, St. Ninian street.

The funeral on Monday was one of the largest ever seen here, showing the esteem in which she was held. The father, sisters and brothers have the sympathy of a host of friends in their sad loss.

The band concert was a grand success. The hall was packed and everybody enjoyed themselves very much. Among those who took part were: Miss Newcomb, Miss Gossip, Miss Grant, Miss Kirk, Miss May Jocelyn and Miss M. McDonald, Messrs. McCannell, Turnbull, Chisholm, Power, McDonald and Taylor. The band is getting along very nicely under the leadership of Bandmaster Henderson who comes here regularly from Pictou.

Miss Lavinia G. Graham of Halifax is visiting her cousin Mrs. Ernest Gregory.

Mr. Bernicot went to St. John last week and intends returning on Friday with his family, they are to reside in W. H. McPhie's house on Pleasant street.

Miss Fitt of Antigonish, C. B., and Miss Andrews of the same place are the guests of Mrs. Harry Brine.

Mrs. D. G. Kirk will live at her home in Boyleston, and Mr. Kirk will board in town for the summer as they have sold all their household effects.

Mr. Thomas McKee of Melrose was in town on Tuesday.

Councilor Sinclair of Goshen spent a day or so here this week.

Mr. Otto Sweet, who has been attending business college in Halifax is home.

John Buchanan has gone to Cape Breton in the interest of the firm of McCurdy & Co.

Mr. K. Sweet has been laid up for a short time with a very sore neck, but his many friends are glad to see him out again.

Hor. C. F. McIlhenny is home from Ottawa, looking hale and hearty, after having been attending to his parliamentary duties for quite a length of time.

Mr. J. E. Condon, a former clerk of this town, was in town for a few days.

Rev. J. R. Munro spent a few days in Halifax recently and attended the closing exercises of Dalhousie and Fine Hill colleges.

Rev. J. F. Forbes of Sydney C. B., was in town for a couple of days. He is going to visit Scotland this summer, and will be accompanied by his brother Judge Forbes of St. John. Their hosts of friends wish them both a most enjoyable trip and a safe return.

Quite a number of the fair sex of this town are going to ride a wheel this summer. It is high time they were making a move as our sister towns can boast of being far ahead in this line.

WINDSOCK.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Windsor at Knowles' book store and by F. W. Dakin.]

MAY 5.—A pleasant change from the social quiet which has reigned here of late and one which was hailed with delight by the young people was the dance given by Miss Madeline Black on Thursday last week. Those present were Miss McCallum, Miss G. Ouseley, Miss Pearl Haley, Miss Jean Smith, Miss Nellie Patis, Miss Alice Wiggles, Miss Burdman and Miss Shaw. Messrs. F. L. Dimock, C. Roster, W. Morris, F. A. G. Ouseley, Lynde, C. Commar, Tremaine, Barnhill, Young, E. O'Brien, A. Blanchard, Z. Vicker and Bowman.

Mr. Clarence Dimock has gone on a short trip to New York.

Mr. John Taylor of Halifax spent Sunday in town.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Redden and son and Mr. A. Keith were in Windsor over Sunday the guests of Mr. John Keith, Park street.

Mr. F. W. Dimock returned this evening from a fortnight's visit to New York.

Mr. J. S. Johnson has moved to Truro where he lived before coming to Windsor.

Mrs. Taylor and her daughter Mrs. Armstrong of Halifax are spending some time in Windsor and have taken rooms at Miss Bennett's on Grey street.

Miss Wilson who has been visiting Miss Calder, Cedar street has returned to her home in Halifax.

Miss Clarke who has been spending some weeks with Mrs. George Wilcox has just returned recovered from her last illness to go to Fredericton where she visits Mrs. Roberts.

Miss Pratt who has been with her sister Mrs. Wilcox for some time has returned to Wolfville.

Miss Lizette Smith has returned home after a long and very pleasant visit in Yarmouth.

Miss Alice Lawson came home on Saturday when she has been for several weeks with her aunt Mrs. Caldwell.

Miss Lilly Allison was in Halifax on Sunday.

Mr. S. Porter of Halifax was in Windsor last week.

Mr. C. E. Eville of the Halifax banking company Parrboro has been in town for a few days. He returned on Monday taking Mrs. Eville with him.

Mrs. Doodwell of Halifax spent Sunday with her father and mother Mr. and Mrs. William Dimock, Albert street.

The death of Mrs. Shatford whose illness was mentioned last week occurred on Sunday. Her mother Mrs. Stamer whose home is in Windsor has been singularly afflicted, having lost her husband, Rev. Henry Stamer late of Hubbard's Cove, her son Mr. McIlhenny Stamer of Chicago, and her daughter Mrs. Shatford, within two weeks.

Mrs. Percy Stamer went to Hubbard's Cove on Monday to be present at his sister's funeral which took place on Tuesday. Mrs. Shatford was a granddaughter of Colonel Poyntz of Windsor.

A novel entertainment which takes the form of a birthday party is to be given this evening in Christ church school house by the parish Guild. I understand that the idea is that those who attend shall pay an admission fee of a many cents as they are yet old enough to be considered as how could ladies of an uncertain age be expected to go. I hope to be able to report upon the result of the venture next week.

AMHERST.

[PROGRESS is for sale at Amherst by H. V. Purdy.]

MAY 6.—Two birthday parties given by E. W. Lague in the basement of the Methodist church last Tuesday evening was a great success both a socially and financially. A very interesting programme was given during the evening. Miss Laura Hearty and Miss Mollie Bost of Mr. Allison gave recitations on the rostrum. Mrs. J. J. Logan gave a reading, Aux Italiques, Mr. W. S. Logan sang and Mr. Hopkins gave a piano solo. Refreshments were served during the evening by the young ladies of the league. The affair netted one hundred and twelve dollars which will be used for church purposes.

Mrs. Arch McCall and little daughter of New Glasgow are being very warmly welcomed by her many friends in Amherst. Mrs. McCall arrived on Monday and is the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Main Holm Cottage Victoria street.

Mr. J. H. Crocker went to St. Stephen last week to pay a visit to his mother.

Miss Mable Pagley returned home on Tuesday from a visit to her cousin Miss Winnie Cove in Springfield.

SPRINGHILL.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Springfield at David A. Foster's.]

MAY 5.—A very interesting event occurred in Springfield on April 28th, the occasion being the marriage of Mr. J. Hargreaves son of Manager Hargreaves to Miss daughter of Mr. J. Jewkes.

The wedding was one of the prettiest ever seen in our town. The bride wore a handsome gown of rich white silk with bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a magnificent bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids Miss Hargreaves and Miss Simpson were very pretty gowns of cream cashmere with white lace trimmings with plumes and carried bouquets of crimson carnations. The church was prettily decorated. Mr. H. E. Calkin acted as best man and Messrs. C. Black and H. Murray as ushers. The ceremony was performed in the Methodist church by the Rev. B. B. England after which the guests adjourned to the home of the bride where a delicious collation was served.

The concert given by the members of the met-

WOODSTOCK.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Woodstock by Mrs. J. Loane & Co.]

MAY 7.—Thursday last a very successful "G. M. Exhibition" was given by some thirty members of the Fredericton Y. M. C. A. in Graham's Opera house here. The programme was varied and most interesting including bar and trap performances, tumbling and club swinging. The music was delightful, a good orchestra furnished accompaniments for the various performances while several solos on diverse instruments were well rendered. The introductory address was given by Mr. Harry F. McLeod in a pleasing manner. Little Miss Beatrice Patis gave a very pretty exhibition of club swinging. Two or three "clowns" were present and made a great deal of amusement by their performances. A good band with the young men and played several most inspiring airs.

On Monday evening the "Webbing Sisters" gave an entertainment to a large and highly appreciative audience. Their programme was composed of selected scenes from Shakespeare's plays, with dancing, singing, and an amusing little piece entitled "An April Jest" and a patriotic piece called "Fair Canada." Miss Lucy Webber charmed her audience with the grace and naturalness of her acting.

Archdeacon Nesbitt returned home Friday accompanied by his daughter Bessie who had spent the winter with her sister Mrs. Baker of Newport, N. S.

Mr. Harry F. McLeod spent part of last week in Woodstock the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick. Judge Hamilton has spent the last two weeks in Woodstock holding court.

all the position of resident physician in the St. John city hospital is universally respected. The fact that he received news of his appointment on Friday evening and left early the following morning to resume his duties, did not bear his gentlemanly friends from tendering him a farewell supper at Hotel Weldon on Friday evening, and this was a slight token of the esteem in which he is held. Dr. Ellis left many friends who wish him every success in his new field of labor and who realize that his departure leaves a void which will be hard to fill either professionally or socially.
