STEAMER TOUCHED.

Steamer Agost, which arrived at Portland, Me., on Saturday from Chatham, N. B., with pulpwood, had her bottom examined by a diver on Sunday, everything being found all right. On her previous trip she touched while crossing the bar at Chatham and as a matter of precaution it was thought best to send a diver under her.

BOSTON-NEW YORK ROUTE.
The Eastern Steamship Corporation announce that the direct all the way by water route between Boston and New York will start for the season on June 3 and continue until October 4. The steamers Massachusetts and Bunker Hill, which performed the service last year, will be again on the route after having been extensively overhauled during the past winter. They will burn oil hereafter instead of coal as fuel, and have both been equipped with wireless telegraph.

ALTERNATIVE FOR CAPTAIN MERRIAM
IN DIVORCE SUIT AGAINST HIS WIFE

MRS. BESSIE C. MERRIAM AND DAUGHTER CHARLOTTE

It was stated recently that instead of the tentative agreement to settle the divorce suit of Captain Henry C. Merriam, of San Francisco, Cal., against Mrs. Bessie C. Merriam, by allowing the wife to file quietly a cross complaint and take a decree on the ground of desertion, there now is a strong probability that the case either will be fought out to a bitter end or that Captain Merriam will have to formally withdraw and repudiate all that part of his charges which reflect on his wife's moral character.

HORRIBLE MURDER
AT SOURIS, P. E. I.

Gallian McInnis Choked to Death by His Cousin — Deed the Result of Drunken Frenzy.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., May 27.—Gallian McInnis, aged 64 years, a farmer at North Lakeville, near Souris, was choked to death last night by his cousin, James A. McInnis, aged 40, who resides close by. James A. McInnis, accompanied by another man, Macdonald, drove out from Souris and called at Gallian McInnis's on their way home.

Gallian's son, James, came out of the house to assist Macdonald in putting up the team, leaving his father, mother and sister in the house. With-out uttering a word, James A. McInnis walked to the bedroom where Gallian had retired for the night. He caught hold of the elder man, handled him roughly, pulled him out of bed, sat on him, then pulled him back into bed, seized him by the throat and choked him till he died. When maltreating him he challenged him to come out on the road and fight.

Shortly after Gallian's son and Macdonald came in from the barn, seized James A. and put him out. Then the latter and Macdonald drove away. Twenty minutes later Gallian's two other sons, Peter and Joseph, came up the shore to find their father dead.

No motive for the deed is given, but it is reported that James A. had been drinking in Souris. One of the sons says he did not seem to be much the worse of liquor. James A. had been on friendly terms with the family, having frequently called at the house. A warrant was issued for the arrest of McInnis.

"Hello, old chap; still doing newspaper work?"
"Yep; on the Daily Black-Mail."
"You're on the regular staff?"
"Nope; on space yet—what you might call a penny-maligner, you know."

IS BRITAIN TIRED OF CANADA?
We don't think so, but we are sure no man has any chance of curing corns unless he uses Putnam's Corn Extract. It takes out root, stem, and branch, cures painlessly in 24 hours. Use only Putnam's, 25c. at all dealers.

Mrs. Riley—"That Kerrigan boy has gone off for ten years for sand-bagging at our only twenty-year old 'th' wake."

Mrs. Casey—"An' phwat cud yez expect, th' way that chold wuz neglected, Mrs. Riley? Whol, he wuz near sixteen years old before his parents even sint him to a reform school!"

"Wimmen certainly ain't got no consistency."
"What's the matter, Mike?"
"We wife chut me out wid a rolling-pin this morning, and then cried because I left home without kissing her good-by."

How to Absorb an Unlovely Complexion
(Phyllis Moore in Town Talk.)
The face which is admired for its beauty must have smooth skin, pink and white and youthful looking. The only thing I know of that can make such a complexion out of an aged, faded, or discolored one is a natural, not a painted, complexion—this is ordinary mercurized wax.

This remarkable substance literally absorbs the unsightly cuticle, a little each day, the clear, healthy, girlish skin beneath gradually peeping out until within a week or so it is wholly in evidence. Of course such blemishes as freckles, moth patches, liver spots, blotches and pimples are discarded with the old skin. If you will procure an ounce of mercurized wax at the drug store, use like cold cream every night, washing this off mornings, you'll find it a veritable wonder-worker.

Another valuable natural treatment is a wash lotion to remove wrinkles which can be easily prepared. Dissolve 1 oz. powdered axolite in 1-2 pt. witch hazel. Bathe the face in this and you'll find it "works like magic."

MISS GERTRUDE PHILLIPS.
As an offset to militant suffragettes, turkey trotting and the tango, Miss Gertrude Phillips, the seventeen-year-old daughter of Richard Phillips, a wealthy lumber and paper pulp man of Hartford, Conn., recommends that young girls keep on playing with dolls and reading fairy tales.

Miss Phillips is so sure that this will divert girls from the "kitchen sink" and other fashionable dances that she said recently, as she started for Europe with her father, that she intends to try to found a "Doll and Fairy Society," with branches all over the world. As an aid to her crusade she took with her a trunk full of dolls dressed up in some of the latest fashions, although harem trousers and silk skirts are barred from her dolls' wardrobe.
