

BRITISH AND FRENCH ARE AGAIN WINNERS

King George's Men Take Important Positions Between Roeux and Gravelle and Near Arras-Cambrai Road — French Capture Several Trenches.

London, April 27.—Important positions between Roeux and Gravelle and near the Arras-Cambrai road have been captured by the British. The war office so announced today.

Sure! High Heels Cause Corns But Who Cares Now

Because style decrees that women crowd and buckle up their tender toes in high heel footwear they suffer from corns, then they cut and trim at these painful pests which merely makes the corn grow hard. This suicidal habit may cause lockjaw and women are warned to stop it.

A few drops of a drug called freezezone applied directly upon a sore corn gives quick relief and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out without pain. Ask the drug store man for a quarter of an ounce of freezezone, which costs very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

This drug is an ether compound and dries in a moment and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. Clip this out and pin on your wife's dresser.

according to an official statement issued by the war office. The total number of cannon captured since April 16 is placed at 138.

French headquarters on the French front, April 27.—The renewed German efforts twice last night to loosen the French grip on the Chemin-des-Dames around Cerny westward of Craonne, wilted then died away under the stubborn resistance of the French. Strong German forces were thrown toward the French positions about nightfall along a 2,000 yard front, where the French, as a result of their forward push last week, virtually dominated the valley through which the Allette stream runs.

Farther along towards Craonne, which sits on the road and commands the main road from Rheims to Laon on the plain spreading eastward lies Hurbelise Farm, which share with Cerny constant German attention, in consequence of its situation near Craonne, the continued possession of which is of great importance to the Germans. The opposing artilleries fight an incessant duel in this sector and the Germans are doing their utmost by holding Craonne to threaten the French advance across the flatlands towards Laon.

Mrs. Geo. B. Stackhouse, which occurred at her residence in Kitchener street yesterday morning, after a lingering illness. She was sixty-four years old and is survived by her husband, three sons, Benjamin A. George E. and Sterling B., all of this city; three brothers, Charles Stackhouse of this city and Thomas and Benjamin of California; three sisters, Mrs. B. Garey of South Boston; Mrs. James Logan and Mrs. P. Pace, both of this city. The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon.

What President Wilson Expects of Each Citizen

Personal responsibility for the outcome of the war is brought home to every man and woman of the United States by President Wilson's appeal to enlist in the great civilian army, without whose whole-hearted services, "mere fighting would be useless."

"This plea to the American people," declares the Washington Evening Star, "is the most important stroke yet delivered in the battle of preparedness," and the Philadelphia North American remarks that "never before in history has a nation received so sobering a summons at the beginning of a War."

IN THE LITERARY DIGEST for April 28, the leading article gives a complete description of how the great army of industry is being mobilized throughout the country. It shows the movements that are under way to increase the cultivation of the land, the proposals to solve the problem of a scarcity of farm labor, and numerous other activities. While Germany hails with delight the President's appeal, seeing in it a declaration of weakness because of a lack of supply of foodstuffs, no red-blooded American who reads this article will for one moment be convinced that there is any truth in Professor Wygodzinski's statement in the Dusseldorf General Anzeiger, that "on the American wheat-field the war will be decided in our (Germany's) favor."

"The Digest"—For People Who Are Not Afraid of the Truth

Never before perhaps in the history of the world has it been more difficult to arrive at the actual truth regarding the tremendous events that are occurring from week to week. Empires are falling, huge tracts of territory are changing hands, and the political complexion of States is being completely altered over night. To know the real facts regarding these epoch-making occurrences is a vital necessity for every one of us, yet there are innumerable influences, both domestic and foreign, that tend to keep the issues clouded and the exact developments in doubt. To obtain the truth you must find a news-magazine that gives you the facts impartially, from whatever source they may be derived, that has no policy but to state conditions as they are, without gloss or concealment, and that leaves your judgment absolutely unfettered. Such a magazine is THE LITERARY DIGEST. You need it. You may now obtain copies of "The Literary Digest" from our local agent in their town or where there is no agent, direct from the Publishers.
