

On the 30th of October last, I visited Summer-side with the view of paying an official visit to King Hiram Lodge, No. 3, and Mount Lebanon Lodge, No. 6, but the notice of my visit not reaching the Worshipful Master of King Hiram Lodge in time, the Brethren were not summoned, consequently I had not the pleasure of meeting them.

On the 29th December last, I visited Victoria Lodge, No. 2, by special invitation, to install their officers. This Lodge is in good working order, comfortable in all its surroundings and financially in a good condition. After the closing of the Lodge the Brethren partook of refreshments, several of the members of St. John's Lodge being present, some time was spent very pleasantly, after which the Brethren departed much pleased with the night's proceedings.

On the 4th of March last, I visited Georgetown, and in company with Past Master John Ross of St. John's Lodge, I paid an official visit to St. George's Lodge, No. 4; was cordially received by the Worshipful Master, Brother George A. Aitken, and the Brethren; examined the records and found them well kept by the veteran Secretary, Brother William Wightman, Post Master of the town. The hall being the property of the Lodge, found a good Lodge room and well furnished. They appear to be well up in the work, finances in a fair condition, the number of members only being twenty-one in consequence of several having dimited after the organization of the Lodges at Montague and Souris.

On the 12th May last paid an official visit to St. John's Lodge, No. 1, in company with the R. W. Grand Secretary. Received with the usual honors, and witnessed the third degree conferred upon a candidate; the work very good, and the material of
