While the question of appointing a successor of the late A. M. McEvoy, county treasurer of Middlesex, will not be dealt with until the regular December session of the county council, it is believed that a dual office will be created rather than the appointment of a new official. County Clerk T. E. Robson, a son-in-law of the late treasurer, it is said will be made clerk and treasurer at an increased salary.

treasurer at an increased salary.

At the last meeting of the Women's Guild of St. James church, Wardsville, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzpatrick, Mrs. A. A. Munroe was given several valuable presents and an address, on the occasion of her Söth birthday. A very pleasant afternoon was spent by the large gathering and all united in wishing the aged member, who is still in church work, many happy returns. It is understood that the manner in which past subscriptions for machine guns will be used by the Government is that the money in question will be actually devoted to such purposes and that a like amount of public funds, which would in the ordinary course have been required for expenditure on these objects, will be set aside for other patriotic activities in connection with the war, such as relief funds and
