CRUELTY TO A CONGREGATION.

The minister of a Scottish congregation mentioned in Sir Archibald

Geikie's 'Reminiscences' neglected to bring the manuscript of his sermon to church one Sunday, and had to make time to go home, a mile away, and fetch it.

Greatly agitated he gave out the one hundred and nineteenth Psalm, and as soon as the congregation began to sing the first of the one hundred and seventy-six verses the minister rushed away to the manse, from which he by and by returned to the church breathless, and found the clerk waiting nervous and uneasy.

'How are you getting on gasped?' the minister.

'Oh, sir,' said the clerk, 'they've got to the end of the eighty-fourth verse and they're cheepin' like wee mice.'

The situation was saved, but the clerical remissness had nearly done for the pious congregation.
