

The Primitive Methodists contemplate the establishment of a Theological Institution in Toronto. Some liberal friends in that city offer $300 a year to sustain it, provided that the other circuits raise $500 a year more. Leading men in the body rightly argue that light as well as heat is needed in a ministry for the present times, and that light will produce heat.

Gleanings in Prose and Verse.

THE DOMINION OF CANADA.

"Methinks I see in my mind a noble and pulesant nation rousing herself liko a strong man after sleep, and shaking her invincible locks;—a nation not slow and dull, but of a quick, ingenious, and piercing spirit; nento to invent, subtle to discourse, not beneath the reach of any point that human capacity can soar to.
"Methinks I see her as an eagle mowing her mighty youth, and kindling her undazzled eyes at the full mid day beam; purging and unscaling her sight at the fountain itself of heavenly radiance."—Milton's "Arcopagitica."

I.

O nation! young and fair and strong, arise
To the full stature of thy greatness now!
Thy glorious destiny doth thee endow
With high prerogative. Before thee lies
A future full of promise. Oh, be wise!
Be great in all things good, and haste to sow
The Present with rich germs from which may grow
Sublime results and noble, high emprise.
Oh! be it hence thy mission to advance
The destinies of man, exalt the race,
And teach down-trodden nations through the expanse
Of the round earth to rise above their base
And low estate, love Freedom's holy cause,
And give to all men just and equal laws.

II.

Oh! let us plant in the fresh virgin earth
Of this new world, a scion of that tree
Beneath whose shade our fathers dwelt, a free
And noble nation—of heroic birth.
Let the Penates of our fathers' hearth
Be hither borne; and let us bow the knee
Still at our fathers' altars. O'er the sea
Our hearts yearn fondly and revere their worth.
And though far-faring from our father's house,
Not forth in anger but in love we go.
It lessens not our reverence, but doth rouse
To deeper love than ever we did know.
Not alien and-estranged, but sons are we
Of that great Father-Land beyond the sea.

W. H. W. —Christian Guardian.

Plainville, April, 1867.

Speaking of the new Dominion of Canada, the New York Independent says:—
"The population of the new confederation will be a fourth greater than was that of the thirteen states at the date of our independence. They are by no means so separated from each other, or so distinct in interest, as were our states at the formation of the constitution. They are sure to grow up into a great and powerful nation, if they remain apart from us. We believe there is no general desire on this side to enlarge our borders toward the north, though the destruction of the slave-power makes it possible, should it ever be desirable. That they may feel the