

It is evident that the Bill now before me comes within the scope of this provision, but I do not find in your Despatches any allusion to this point, although in your speech at the close of the session you advert to an address on the subject presented to you by the Legislature. I would request you to furnish me with the necessary information on this point; but you will of course distinctly understand, that in specially calling your attention to this question of form, I do not pronounce any opinion on the essential principles of the Bill, nor in any way indicate the advice which, on a more mature consideration of its provisions, I may feel it my duty to tender to Her Majesty.

COPY of a DESPATCH from Lieutenant-Governor Sir G. Arthur, K.C.H., to the Marquis of Normanby, dated Toronto, 27 July 1839.

My Lord,

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your Lordship's Despatch, marked "Separate," of the 26th ultimo, wherein, with reference to the reserved Bill for the disposal of the clergy reserves, your Lordship directs my attention to the 42d section of the statute 31 Geo. 3, c. 31, and observes that the address from the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, as required by the provisions of the aforesaid section to be furnished, had not accompanied my Despatch respecting the reserved Bill in question.

No. 9.
Sir G. Arthur to the Marquis of Normanby,
27 July 1839.

In my speech on the prorogation of the Parliament of which I had the honour to transmit your Lordship a copy, I stated that I would transmit the Bill in question, "with your address thereon."

How, therefore, it escaped me to transmit the address which I have now the honour to forward, I am at a loss to conceive, and I beg your Lordship will believe that I regret the omission deeply.

I have, &c.
(signed) Geo. Arthur.
