IN ANSWERING ADVERTISEMENTS MENTION "THE CANADIAN COURIER."

In Lighter Vein

Doomed to Disappointment.—English Clergyman—"And when you arrive in London, my dear lady, don't fail to see St. Paul's and Westminster Abbey."

Fair American.—"You bet; I'll rattle those off sure; but what I've been hankering to see, ever since I was knee-high to a grasshopper, is the Church of England."—Dallas News.

A Faithful Servitor.—The teacher wanted some plums in order to give an object lesson during school hours, and, calling one of the small boys, she gave him ten cents and dispatched him to the fruit stand down on the corner.

"Before you buy the plums, Willie," she cautioned, "you had better pinch one or two to make sure they are ripe."

Little Willie flitted away. Soon he came back and smilingly put the bag on the teacher's desk.

"Oh, thank you, Willie," said the teacher, taking up the bag. "Did you pinch one or two as I told you to do?"

"Did I?" was the gleeful response. "I pinched the whole bagful and here's your ten cents."—Ladies' Home Journal.

Mere Minnows.—"Did you catch any fish this morning?"

"No" (scornfully).

"Well, you are truthful, anyway, which can't be said of all fishermen."

"As to that, perhaps you might have called them fish, but I wouldn't. The biggest one I got only weighed twelve pounds."—Sketch.

No Change.—The Prince of Monaco, who, having had both an English and an American wife, knows whereof he speaks, said of marriage at a dinner: "Through marriage a French woman gains her liberty, an English woman loses hers, and an American woman——" The prince paused and looked quizzically about him. "Yes? The American woman?" said a debutante. "The American woman," ended the prince, "continues to do as she likes."

Not Too Late.—Little Rollo had been reprimanded for his table manners by papa and mamma. He trained his baby stare on mamma to ask: "When you was a little girl didn't y'ever dip your jelly roll in coffee?" "No, my dear," with a tinge of acerbity. "Y'ot to try it. Gee, it's great!"—Buffalo Express.

Sweet Repose.—"Did the husband of that militant suffragette who was always longing for peace ever find it?"

"He has found comparative peace. He is with the army in Mexico."—Houston Post.

Rejected.—"Did you stop in the employment agency to get a cook?" asked Mrs. Crosslots. "Yes," replied her husband, gloomily. "Eight of 'em looked me over and decided that I wouldn't do."—Washington Star.

The Original.—"What are you doing, Tommy?" teacher inquired in her sweetest manner. "Drawin'," was the sullen response. "Drawing what, Tommy?" "Drawin' a picture of God." "But, Tommy," said the shocked teacher, "nobody has ever seen God. Nobody knows what He looks like." Tommy was undaunted. "Well, they will when I get this picture drawn."—Washington Star.

Railroad Amenities.—Passenger—"That last station was my destination, sah. Why, sah, didn't you stop thar?"

Conductor—"We don't stop there any more. The engineer's mad at the station agent."—Sacred Heart Review.

WISCONSIN
MOTOR

"There's My Motor"

"The man who built it sure knew just what I wanted—size, price and everything else. No more rowing for me. I'm going to have some REAL fun out of MY rowboat. And I'm going in and get THAT motor right NOW, too. Then when the next good day comes along I'll be READY."

Wisconsin
Detachable
Row Boat
Motor

The one absolutely and completely efficient motor in its class. Simple—dependable—economical—powerful—strong. Light—carries grip-fashion. Instantly adjustable to any rowboat. A twist of the wheel starts it. You get any speed—slow, for trolling, or nine miles an hour if you're in a hurry.

Rudder Steering—constant control of the boat, even when motor's still. High Tension Magneto Ignition—never a miss. A real motor—not a makeshift. Made by the same men who build the long-famous Wisconsin Valveless Marine Engine.

PEASE "ECONOMY" FURNACE

Summer Temperature in Zero Weather

This is what happens when you have a Pease furnace in your home. This is an actual fact that was proved over and over again by the users of Pease furnaces in the winter just gone by, when we had the coldest February on record.

The Pease furnace not only gives more warmth throughout the whole house, but burns less coal and is far less trouble to handle.

"Pays for itself by the coal it saves"
