announcements

Are you hungry for social justice and environmental action? Please come and find out about the nova scotia public interest research group (nspirg). Our office is in room 315 in the SUB. We have working groups on eco-action, economic justice, food issues, humans against homophobia (HAH), People for animal welfare (PAW), and the women's health collective. We also have a community garden and a food cooperative. Our resource library is growing as well! (New! Handy dandy guides, a directory of alternative resources centres and contacts in metro, are available). Drop by the office to check it out, or call 494-6662 for more information.

Interested in organic food at great prices? Then join the nova scotia public interest research group's food cooperative. Place your order by January 14 before 5:00 pm. New members are welcome! Call 494-6662 for more info.

Are you interested in social justice and environmental issues? Are you a fulltime student of Dalhousie University? If so, does the nova scotia public interest research have a treat for you! We have a vacancy on our board of directors. If you would like more information please give us a holler at 494-6662, or drop by the nspirg office in room 315 of the Dalhousie Student Union Building.

The Dartmouth Players present the drama "night Mother" at the Crichton Avenue Community Centre from January 15th to February 1, on Wednesday-Saturday nights at 8 p.m. The first two nights are "pay what you can" nights, and regular tickets are $10 for adults and $7 for seniors and students. Please call 465-PLAY for reservations and information.

What will be your New Year's resolution for 1997? To make a difference in your community? To be a better person? To gain more work experience? The Student Volunteer Bureau can help you achieve these resolutions. Come and visit us in January in Room 452 of the SUB. Also, don't miss the "Global Community" Volunteer Fair on Thursday, January 23rd in the Green Room of the SUB and the "Volunteer in the Health Professions" Volunteer Fair in the Tupper Building on Thursday, January 30th. For more information, call 494-1561 or e-mail us at svb@is.dal.ca.
