Mr. Eustace A. Brock,
Great-West Life Assurance Co.,
Winnipeg, Man.

Dear Mr. Brock:

I have your letter of 25th inviting me to address the Annual Meeting of the Insurance Advertising Conference next October.

I hope you will understand me when I say it is impossible for me to accept this invitation. Certain circumstances have combined to bring me on too many platforms in recent weeks, and the requirements of my immediate duties are such that I must attend to them and maintain silence, so far as speeches are concerned, for a considerable time.

It would indeed be an honour to address your Convention, and it is with sincere reluctance that I am compelled by the requirements of consistency to decline your kind invitation.

Very truly yours,

AM/E.

Arthur Meighen.
