DEPARTMENT OF INDIAN AFFAIRS
CANADA

OFFICE OF THE
DEPUTY SUPERINTENDENT GENERAL
OTTAWA

December 16th. 1921.

Dear Mr. Ditchburn,

I am enclosing herewith an application from some Indians of the Kincolith band in which they ask to have certain lands which they have staked out allotted as a reserve. I am not able from the sketch which accompanied the application, to positively identify the tract of land, and I am, therefore sending it to you with a view to your making inquiries and reporting at your convenience. I am sending you the originals which you will be good enough to return with the report.

Yours very truly,

Duncan Chisholm
Deputy Superintendent General

W. E. Ditchburn, Esq.,
Chief Inspector of Indian Agencies,
