

C. O.'s: "—th Battalion—Advance in Close Column—

Brigadier's Signal, then—

C. O.'s: "Quick March."

Position of Officers When Marching Past in Brigade Close Column

Brigadier and his Staff—Position same as when Brigade Marched Past by Companies.

C. O.'s—15 paces in front of the centre of the Leading Company of their Battalions.

Sen. Maj.—10 paces in front of left centre of Rear Company.

Jnr. Maj.—10 paces in rear of centre of Rear Company.

Adjt.—10 paces in rear of right centre of Rear Company.

Co'y Crs.—3 paces from Outer Flank of their Companies.

Co'y Officers—As when Marching Past by Companies.

Colours and Sgt.-Maj.—As when Marching Past by Companies.

When Marching Past in Brigade Close Column, the Brigadier and his Staff and Battalion C.O.'s will be the only Officers who will Salute, and on reaching Point B
the procedure will be as follows:

Brigadier and Staff act as when Marching Past by Companies.

C. O., Leading Batt.: "Eyes Left"—when he reaches Point B, when all except Left Guides will turn head and eyes well to the Left, and looking the Reviewing Officer in the face, and the C.O.'s Saluting.

C. O.: "Eyes Front"—when the Rear Company of his Battalion has passed the Reviewing Officer.

C. O.'s of Remaining Batt. acting in a similar manner, care being taken to preserve a distance of 50 paces.
