

The following articles of the Memoirs Bulletin was omitted: Journal of the Museum of the University of Toronto, Vol. 1, No. 1, 1920.
The following articles of the Geological Series of the Museum of the University of Toronto were omitted:

CONTENTS

1. The Tremont shales, Ottawa district, W. R. Billings, by E. A. Barber.
2. New Lower Cambrian, Wilkes, by E. A. Barber.
3. The occurrence of Helicotoma fossils at Roche Moutonnée, Extonville, Alberta, by E. A. Barber.
4. Notes on Cycloporinae, by P. T. Raymond.
5. Notes on some new and old fossils in the Victoria Memorial Museum, by P. T. Raymond.
6. Description of some new Asaphids, by P. T. Raymond.
7. Two new species of Tetradieta, by P. T. Raymond.
8. Revision of the species of the genus Berytus (including Berytus), by P. T. Raymond.
9. A new Branchiopod from the base of the Eureka, by A. L. Wilson.
10. A new genus of Cheyletonia, a plan from the bottom of K. L. 1, by W. F. Wilson.
11. A new species of Lepidocarpus, by W. F. Wilson.
12. Pro-life from Adams Sound, Admiralty Inlet, Baffin Island, Franklin, by R. A. A. Johnston.
13. The origin of granite in the Foul Bay, by S. J. Hitchcock.
14. Columnar structure in limestone, by E. M. Kinelle.
15. Supposed evidence of subsidence of the coast of New Brunswick within modern time, by J. W. Galloway.
16. The Pre-Cambrian-Beltian rocks of southeastern British Columbia and their correlation, by S. J. Hitchcock.
17. Early Cambrian stratigraphy of the North American Cordillera, with discussion of the Algonkian and related faunas, by Lancaster D. Bowling.
18. A preliminary study of the variations of the plications of Plectambonites, by Alice F. Wilson.
19. The Anticosti Island faunas, by W. H. Twenhofel.