

- Union Labor party—Continued
see also National Union
 Labor party
 Union of Longshoremen, Marine and Transport Workers, 126
 United Association of Journeymen Plumbers, Gas Fitters, Steam Fitters and Steam Fitters' Helpers, 119
 United Brotherhood of Carpenters, 109
 United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, 110
 United Hatters of North America, 60
 United Labor party, 233, 234
 United Mine Workers, 112, 117, 128-29, 177, 181

 Van Buren, Martin, executive order for ten-hour day, 51
 Van Hise, C. R., 146
 Vermont, labor politics, 227
 Virginia, class distinction in, 20

 Wages, beginning of controversy, 11-12; in 1784, 21; result of tailors' strike, 22; rise of, 22; in 1840, 28; carpenters', 31; strikes to raise, 36; Mooney on (1850), 43; issue, 69-70; Paris peace treaty and, 106; United Mine Workers and, 129; Arthur and engineers', 142; Stone and, 144; Eastern engineers demand standardization of, 145; Garretson and, 152; brakemen's, 157; Wilkins and, 158; Adamson Law and, 166; further increase for railroad employees, 167; Trade unions and, 168-169; State regulation, 250
 Walling, W. E., 245
 ashington (State), "hobo" labor in, 190; and I. W. W., 216
 Washington (D. C.), union in, 34; Knights of Labor, 84; headquarters of American Federation of Labor in, 97
 Weaver, General J. B., 232, 236
 Webb, Sidney and Beatrice, History of Trade Unionism, 14
 Weed, Thurlow, 24
 West Roxbury (Mass.), Brook Farm experiment at, 41
 Western Federation of Miners, 174, 189, 192, 194
 Whig party and ten-hour day, 53
 Wilkinson, S. E., 157
 Willard, Daniel, 146, 149
 Wilson, Woodrow, quoted, 72; and Clayton Act, 100; and Garretson, 152; and threatened strike of Brotherhoods (1916), 163-64; and eight-hour railroad law, 164-66
 Wisconsin, communistic experiment in, 41; eight-hour law for women and children (1867), 71; labor ticket (1888), 237; Socialist party (1918), 245
 Women, wages in 1840, 28; "new woman" movement, 43; conditions of labor, 44-45; in factories, 54-55; organizations, 55-56; Paris peace treaty and equal pay for, 107; State regulation of labor, 250
 Wood Workers in shipbuilding industry, 110
 Wood-Workers' International Union, 125
 Wooden Box Makers, 110
 "Woodstock meetings," 226
Working Man's Advocate, The, 223, 225
Working Man's Gazette, 226