

Acadia Athenæum.

The object of this Society is the improvement of the members in discussion and public speaking. It meets weekly.

Arrangements are made for a Course of public Lectures during each College year.

There is under its control a Reading Room, where may be found a select variety of newspapers, provincial and foreign.

The Athenæum is under the sole management of the Students of the College, subject to the approval of its laws and regulations by the Faculty. Graduates may become honorary members.
