'Canadian Pictorial'

The best printed magazine in Canada, crowded with the most interesting pictures of recent happenings, pictures of beautiful or curious things, portraits of people in the public eye, snap shots, etc., etc.

Next best thing to travelling and seeing people, places and events with one's own eyes.

The 'Canadian Pictorial' has simply bounded into popularity, and to-day boasts a larger circulation than any other magazine in Canada. It contains about a thousand square inches of pictures in each issue, and costs to produce about a thousand dollars each issue—sometimes considerably more.

The more people are educated, the more they appreciate and value pictures of current events, for they convey so much information in so short a time. But the children also profit by and enjoy them.

The press of Canada, from coast to coast, has said the nicest things about the 'Canadian Pictorial.' Here are two or three specimens:—

It is beautifully printed. A most creditable production.—'Herald,' Yarmouth, N.S.

Every illustration is a work of art—some of its pictures fit for framing.—'Mining Record,' N.S.

It is filled with splendidly executed photographs.—'Times,' St. John, N.B. It bears out its undertaking to give its patrons only the highest class of work, and certainly offers them the maximum of pictures.—'Star,' Toronto, Ont.

The pictures in the 'Pictorial' are among the finest that have been produced.—'World,' Vancouver, B.C.

The Christmas Number is a gem. Send it to your friends at home and abroad.

'World Wide'

A weekly budget of articles and cartoons, carefully selected from the world's greatest Journals and Reviews. It reflects the current thought of both hemispheres, is internationally fair and is the busy man's magazine.

Almost better than the privileges of a great library, the selection is so good.

As a pleasant tonic—a stimulant to the mind—'World Wide' has no peer; at the price, no equal among the Journals of the day. An effort is made to select articles each week so that due proportion is given to the various fields of human interest. Regular readers of 'World Wide' are kept in touch with the world's thinking.

So far as possible, the editors of 'World Wide' give both sides of all important questions. Read what some of our subscribers say:—

Sir Algernon Coote, Baronet, Mount-rath, Ireland, says:—I am delighted with 'World Wide.' The publication is superior to any of a similar kind that I have seen on either side of the Atlantic. I am recommending it to my friends.

Dr. S. E. Dawson, King's Printer, Ottawa, says:—'World Wide' is a relief to busy men. 'World Wide' is the only paper which I read without skipping. The Rev. C. E. and Mrs. Dobbs write:—To be a regular reader of 'World Wide' is to partake of the intellectual life of the present day.

President Trotter, D.D., Acadian University, says:—I look eagerly for your weekly collection of good things, and recommend the paper warmly to my friends.

'World Wide' Annual Cartoon Review is included with all yearly subscriptions. It's great!
