BALDNESS.

A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the A grandest ornament belonging to the ha-man frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance, and prematurely brings on the appearance of old age, which causes many to recoil at being un overed, and sometimes even shun society to avoid the jo and sneers of their acquaintances; the rema ant. and sneers of their acquantances; the remain-der of their lives consequently spent in retire-ment. In short, not even the loss of property fills the generous thinking youth, with that heavy sinking gloom as does the loss of his hair,—To avert all these unpleasant circumhair, stances, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUM-BIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application and a few bottles restores it again. application and a few bottles restores it again. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers; prevents the hair from turning gray, makes it earl beantifully, and frees it from sourf. Not earl beautifully, and frees it from scurf. Nu-merous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm are shown by the proprietors.

THIS extraordinary chemical composition, THIS extraordinary chemical composition, the result of science and the invention of a celebrated medical man, the introduction of which to the public was invented with the sciencity of a death-field bequest, has since gained a reprtation unparalled, fully sustain-ing the correctness of the lamented Dr. Grid-ley's last confession, that " he dared not dis without giving to posterity the benefit of his knowledge on this subject," and he therefore bequeathed to his friend and attendant, Solo-benom Havx. the secret of his discovery.
