THE CITIZENS' INSURANCE

appeared vigorous and in excellent health. It was also gratifying to see that the Lord Bishop, although he had just accomplished a journey by rail of one thousand miles to give an address of welcome to the Metro-politan, was in good health and spirits.

-It is stated in the Paris Siecle that M. Chas. Quentin, one of the editors of the Reveil, has now been closely confined for two months in a cell in the prison of Mazas, and that to this day he has undergone no examination whatever, and does not know of what he is accused. The Siecle points out that he is well known, and, if required, could give bail; and it maintains that France is the only country in Europe where a man can be thus deprived of free-dom, separated from home, friends, and occupation, without any cause being as-signed.
