PARISH NEWS OF THE WEEK

ST. ANTHONY'S.

A largely attended smoker and concert was held in St. Anthony's Hall under the auspices of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of Canada on Tuesday evening last, under the presidency of Mr. J. H. Kelly. About 250 guests, representing the various temperance societies in the city, were present, delegates from which occupied seats on the platform. The first item was the reading of reports of last meeting. These having been adopted the regular order of the day was gone through, and other points and suggestions accepted. At this stage of the proceedings, Mr. Frank Curran, president of St. Patrick's National Society, entered the room, in order to give in his own name and that of those whom he represented, all the aid and encouragement in his power.

Mr. Easton gave a clear and elaborate address in which he laid plainty before his hearers the scope as well as the real ends and aims of the union.

The formal initiation of St. Anthony's Juvenile Society to the Union, as well as that of new officers to replace some retiring then took place, and the whole was brought to a close by the tendering of a vote of thanks, by Messrs. M. J. O'Donnell and W. P. Doyle, to the Rev. I'ather Donnelly, for his kindness in placing the hall at the disposal of the Union.

MR. MICHAEL SCANLAN.

On Sunday last the death occurred of Mr. Michael Scanlan, superintendent of the Dominion and Leyland lines. He entered the service of David Torrance & Co., in 1857, when he was only 17 years of age, and when shipping was done in sailing boats. In 1872, when the Lommann line was inaugurated, ar. Scanlan became wharf superintendent, which position he held up to the time of his death. During these thirty-five years Mr. Scanlan was tireless in his attention to his exacting duties. A naturally rugged constitution for hard work and the geniality that comes from a well poised nature, were qualities that won for Mr. Scanlan many friends in the shipping community, and from the travelling public.

During the last few years Mr. Scanlan's work as superintendent has much increased. He attended to his work until about two weeks ago, when he was taken fil; and complications ensued.

He settled at Virginia City, which at that time, as now, was widely known as the centre of a large mining district. He had a very successful career, and held many responsible positions in the gift of the people, and represented Nevada in the United States Senate. He was president of the San Francisco, Cal, Corn Exchango, and a prominent member of the Boards of Trade of San Francisco and Virginia City.

Some months ago his health began to give way, and he spent four months in Europe, taking the waters at the famous Carlsbad Springs, from which, however, he derived but little benefit.
