London, November 27, 1883—The Dublin municipal elections have resulted in a magnificent victory for the National party. Of the ten seats contested they won eight. Five Conservatives and three whigs have been ousted. The Tories, Whigs and Castle Catholics formed a coalition, but the people overwhelmed them. By these elections the Corporation becomes almost wholly National.

Dublin, Dec. 1.—Alderman William Meagher (Parnellite) has been elected Lord Mayor of Dublin. The Liberal and Conservative members of the corporation abstained from voting.

The Parnell. Fund now amounts to over £30,000.

The Parnel. Fund now amounts to over £30,000.

Dublin, Dec. 1.—At a meeting to-day of Irish farmers, presided over by a priest, resolutions were adopted asking the National League to start a fund for the payment of Irish Members of Parliament, condemning emigration, pledging those present to forbid hunting over their lands while landlordism exists.

London, Dec. 1.—The Deputy Grand Master of the English Orangemen has issued an address in connection with the case of Lord Rossmore. He says they cannot sit still and tamely submit to see their Dublin, Dec. 1.—Lord Rossmore has written another letter to the Lords Commissioners of the Privy Seal in defence of his action at Roslin, county Fermanagh. He says the suspension of his commission as justice of the peace is of small importance to himself, but many loyalists will consider it another slight directed against those anxious to protest sgainst the doctrine of rapine and revolution. The Lords Commissioners, replying, have no doubt of the propriety of their decision, and decline to discuss the matter further.

O'DONNELL FOUND GUILTY. O'DONNELL FOUND GUILTY.

London, Dec 1.—The trial of O'Don-nell for the murder of Carey was resumed to-day. The court-room was crowded, but few persons outside the building. The prisoner's brother was present. O'Donnell appeared calm. After addresses for the defence and prosecution the judge delivered his charge, when the jury retired and returned in four minutes with a verdict of wilful murder. The judge then passed the sentence of death in the usual form. to-day. The court-room was crowded, but London, Dec. 2—To-day O'Donnell conversed freely with the warders. He exrersed freely with the warders. He expressed no surprise at the verdict, although he confessed that the jury's hesitation inspired him with hope that he might escape the extreme penalty. He still maintains that he is innocent of murder.

The prisoner will probably remain at Newgate, where he will be hanged probably December 17th. Ample precautions have been taken to prevent rescue. Two have been taken to prevent rescue. Two warders remain with O'Donnell night and day.

London, Dec. 2.—The result of O'Donnell's trial was eagerly awaited by Irish circles in London, where it was generally expected the verdict would be manslaughter. Some of the league branches have re-solved to form committees to memorializ the Home Secretary to commute the sentence. It is thought probable an attemp will be made to bring pressure upon the United States Government to intervene for the commutation of the sentence.

BRANTFORD LETTER.

In some lines of business we hear talk of dullness, but the Christmas Tree indus-try here was never in such a flourishing con-dition. The ladies have been at work for some time past and are laying in a stock that gives the suggestion of a wholesale general store, and still they are not willing to rest from their labors yet a while. All some time past and are laying in a stock that gives the suggestion of a wholesale general store, and still they are not willing to rest from their labors yet a while. All who took part in it in previous years are at work and many new hands are being initiated. Some articles of great value are to be disposed of this season, among them, a gold watch, a silver watch, a magnificent hanging lamp, a china set, albums, and articles of lesser value. Later we may be office for Ontario. to be disposed of this season, among them, a gold watch, a silver watch, a magnificent hanging lamp, a china set, albums, and articles of lesser value. A Gala Day at St. Jerome.

To-day has been a gala day at St. Jerome, and will not soon be forgotten by the citizens of that little town, the occasion being the celebration of the 50th birthday of the Rev. Father Labelle, The proceedings began this morning with celebration of a solemn high mass in the celebration of a solemn high mass in the beautiful parish church, in honor of the event. The clergy and parishioners presented complimentary addresses, to which the reverend gentleman gave replies. In the evening, the population will turn out or masse to participate in replies. In the evening, the population will turn out en masse to participate in a grand torchlight procession. The train to St. Jerome from this city this morning was well filled with well known citizens. who intended to take part in the cele bration, including a number of clergy-men. Rev. Father Labelle was also the recipient of a number of valuable presents.—Montreal Star, Nov. 29th.

DON BOSCO: A Sketch of His Life and Mracles. By Dr. Charles D Espiney. Translated from the French by Miss Mary McMahon. 18mo, cloth. With Portrait, McMahen. 18mo, cloth. With Portrait, do cents.

Filled with anecdotes, briming over with maryelous incidents—if not miracles—this book is sure to find many readers. To the care and education of poor, abandoned boys, the street Arabs of the great citles, Don Bosco has devoted his whole life. Friendless and without money, his labors in this heroic work have been abundantly rewarded, and today more than one hundred thousand poor children saved from ruin, thousands of priests whom he has led to the Altar, and countless multitudes in every sphere of life bless his name, while noble buildings reared by his efforts stand gigantic monuments to his devotion and zeal. No romance ever written possesses more interest than this true story of a noble christian hero. Published by BENZIGER BROS., New York.

On the 24th of November-the eve of the feast of St. Catherine, the patron saint of Rev. Mother St. Catherine, Superioress of the Ursulines of Quebec—the latter was of the Craumes of guesce—the latter was the recipient of a vast number of floral offerings from the Children of Mary, com-prising past and present students of the monastery. The lid is down to rise no more, Upon thy face so dear, The rites and Requiem Mass is o'er, Midst sorrow, sighs and tears. Thou were so young to leave us, So full of life and hope, But cruel death deceived us, When the silken cord he broke.

And since the snows have fallen, Upon thy narrow new made grave, The blossoms all shell wither, And the green grass gently fade.
