

Carnival Scenes of Twenty-Six Years Ago

The Winter Carnival of 1884 was the second in Montreal's series, and was held in Dominion Square, which, at that time, was considered almost suburban. Now it is the very heart of the up-town district. The present site of the Ice Palace is much more natural.