

RESOLVED, that it is the opinion of this Committee, that the fourth amendment of the Legislative Council be laid aside.

RESOLVED, that it is the opinion of this Committee, that the fifth amendment of the Legislative Council be laid aside.

RESOLVED, that it is the opinion of this Committee, that the sixth amendment of the Legislative Council be laid aside.

On motion of Mr. Viger, seconded by Mr. François Caron ;

ORDERED, that the question of concurrence be now separately put upon the Resolutions reported by the Committee.

And the first of the said Resolutions was again read, and the question of concurrence being put thereon, the House divided ; and the names being called for, they were taken down, as follows :

Yeas,

Messieurs Jean Baptiste Bedard, Blouin, Bernier, Langlois, François Caron, Durocher, Huot, Papineau, junior, Bellet, Larue, Blanchet, and Viger.

Nays,

Messieurs Bell, Coffin, Dénéchau, and Mure.

So it was carried in the affirmative.

The residue of the said Resolutions were then severally read, and the question of concurrence being separately put thereon, the House divided upon each, and the divisions proved to be the same as upon the first Resolution.

So they were carried in the affirmative.

RESOLVED, that this House doth concur with the Committee, in the said Resolutions.
