Orde's face cleared.

raise money. Is it not so?"

That evening, well after 6, Orde re-turned to Newmark to take dinner.

"Good!" approved Newmark briefly.

"It was really pretty decent of the little Dutchman. He agreed to let us ed him. "I am to bring it in Monday."

ing to get control."
"Oh, no!" cried Orde, astounded.

"Besides, he is going to buy some dollars, didn't you?"

"Why—yes, I did." Newmark laughed.

we'll have to forfeit."

shellbacks are."
"H'm - yes,"

asked Newmark, spearing a baked he'd buy some of

Sixteen girls ys, four girls

Twelve Boy uby Newman

Nine girls

n Matthews

story grew

ove

n, N. B.

care

esults

How the Red Cross dogs do their work; iq.—Our Dumb Animals. searching out the hiding-places of the wounded soldiers even before the deadly fire of the enemy has ceased; bringing back some evidence of their findings and conducting the rescuers to the spot where lies the wounded man,—all this has been repeatedly described during the progress of the war. One of the most remarkable exhibitions of a dog's sagacity, however, was given by Filax in his long list of rescues. It stands as a supreme proof of his fidelity as well as his superior intelligence. A French lieutenant, in command of a rading party, fell into a German trap, with the result that his command was cut to pieces. He himself was so badly

"Mrs. Comeup, I hear that your daughter has got in with the bong tone." "Nor may age their contracts for driving their ext winter's cut."

"Know how to wash cars?" asked the garage boss. "Sure I know, said the garage boss. "Sure I know, and the license plates."

"Your friend seems to spend his money freely." "I don't blame him. He got it what work." "A self-made man, ch?" "Not a blt," may hard work." "A self-made man, ch?" we've got to carry the with the ong tone." "Look he re, Joe." Orde objected, "you can talk business to them better than I can."

"Your friend seems to spend his money freely." "I don't blame him. He got it when the control of the work of the most of the work." "A self-made man, ch?" we've got to carry the with the control of the property of the control of the property of the control of the with the bong tone." "Look he re, Joe." Orde objected, "you can talk business to the men talk business to them better than I can."

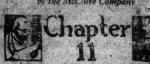

"Not a blt," mearting the property with the bong tone. "You can talk the stand of the property with the bong tone." "Look he re, Joe." "Look he re, Joe. wounded soldiers even before the deadly

"FILAX," FRIEND OF THE SOLDIER

DRAVING the dangers of that shell torn area known as "No Man's Land," times without number, and credit ed with saving the lives of one hundred wounded French soldiers is the record of "Filax," German sheep-dog and Red Cross worker who visited this country of a few months ago on furlough granted by the French Minister of the Interior.

Filax was brought to the United States for exhibition purposes and now belongs to L. F. Wanner, of Hempstead, L. I. He is four years old and weighs seventy-five pounds. He is a hero many times over and the object of attention wherever he goes.

How the Red Cross dogs do their work;

"Now. Orde," said he, "here is where you come in. It's now your job to go out and inter-view these men they do know We've got to carry you. We've got this thing through.

"Yes," agreed Orde.
"How much vill you capitalize for?"
"A bundred thousand," replied Orde.
"Yell," said Heinzman, "ven you put it on the market come and see me." "All right," agreed Orde. "I'll start in on Daly." The following morning Daly listened

"Well, Jack," said he, "I believe you can do it. I'd be only too glad to get rid of the nuisance of it, let alone get rid of the nuisance of it, let alone get it done cheaper. If you'll draw up your contract and bring it in here, I'll sign it. I suppose you'll break out the rollways."

"No" and Orde. "We hadn't thence!"

"No" and Orde. "We hadn't thence!"

"No" and Orde. "We hadn't thence!" rollways?"
"No," said Orde. "We hadn't thought of doing more than the driving and distributing. You'll have to deliver

"Why," explained Orde, with a slight stare of surprise, "when the logs are cut and hauled during the winter they are banked on the river banks and even in the river channel itself. Then, when the thaws come in the spring, these piles are broken down and set afloat in the river."

"I see," said Newmark. "Well, but why shouldn't we undertake that part of it?"

of it?"

"It would hold back our drive too much to stop and break rollways."

The next morning they took the early train for Moarovia, where were situated the offices of the nine other lumber companies.

Orde separated from Newmark to spend the rest of the morning with Heinsman, a very rotund, cautious person of German extraction and accent. Heinzman occupied the time in asking questions of all sorts about the new terprise. At 12 he had not in any

"I vill see Proctor," said be. "I vill see Proctor," said he.

Orde, rather exhausted, returned to find Newmark. The two had lunch together, after which Orde succeeded in getting two more promises of contracts and two more deferred infer-said Newmark.

He frowned over the three simple items for some time.

"It's got me," he confessed.

"What do you mean?" asked Orde in tracts and two more deferred interviews.

The following morning also he was much encouraged by the reception of his plan.

"That's four contracts already." said he, "and three more practically a sure thing. Proctor and Heinzman are slower than molasses about everything and mean as pusley, and Johnson's up in the air, the way he always is, for fear some one's going to do him."

But Heinzman offered a new problem for Orde's cousideration.

"I haf talked with Proctor," said he, "and ve like your scheme. If you can

"I haf talked with Proctor," said he, "and ve like your scheme. If you can deliffer our logs here for $2.25, why, that is better as ve can do it, but how do ve know you vill do it?"

"I'll guarantee to get them here all right," laughed Orde.

"But what is your guarantee good for?" persisted Heinzman blandly. "Suppose the logs are not deliffered—what then? How responsible are you financially?" inancially?"

financially?"
"Seventy-five thousand dollars,"
"If you vill give a bond for the performance of your contract," pursued Heinzman, "that vould be satisfac-

Orde's mind was struck chaotic by the request.

"How much of a bond?" he asked.

"Twenty-fife thousand vould satisfy us," said Heinzman. Orde bunted up Newmark. "Heinzman has sense," said New-mark dryly after hearing Orde's story.
"I was wondering if ordinary business caution was unknown out here."

"Nobody would go on my bond for "Nobody would go on my bond for that amount."

"Mine either," said Newmark. "We'll further," said Newmark. "We'll further, said Newmark." "We'll further, s

"Mine either," said Newmark. "We'll just have to let them go and drive ahead without them. I only hope they won't spread the idea. Better get those other contracts signed up as soon as we can."

Orde started out early the next morning, carrying with him duplicate contracts.

About 11 o'clock a clerk of the Welton's private office to deliver to Orde a mote.

Torde started out early the next morning, carrying with him duplicate contracts.

About 11 o'clock a clerk of the Welton's private office to deliver to Orde a mote.

Torde laughed.

through his spectacles; "Froctor and I into talked it ofer, and we are agreet that the probosition is a good one; also we think it is well to help the young fellers along." He laughed silently in such a manner as to shake himself all over. "Ve do not vish to be too severe, and yet we must get our one on time. So if you gif us a bond secured with stock in the new company, they would be satisfactory to us."

'Do you mean that, Mr. Heinzman?" ut!" cried Orde.
"Make your contract out according to these terms, then," said Heinzman, handing him a paper, "and bring it in Orde glauced over the slip. It recited two and a quarter as the agreed price; specified the date of delivery at Heinzman and Proctor's booms; named

$25,000 as the amount of the bond, to be secured by $50,000 worth of stock in the new company. This looked sat-"By the vay"-the little German beamed up at him, swinging his fat legs as the office chair tipped back—

"you vill be selling some of the stock all that."

NEW OTTAWA DEPARTMENT

Ottawa, Nov. 24,-Formal notice ap-"It was really pretty decent of the distributing. You'll have to deliver the logs in the river. Maybe another year, after we get better organized, we'll be able to break rollways."

"That was smooth enough sailing," exulted Orde to Newmark.

"Yes," pondered Newmark. "What was that about rollways? What does that mean exactly?"

"Yes," pondered Newmark. "What was that about rollways? What does that mean exactly?"

"Why," explained Orde, with a slight of the possion of the Department of Immigration and Colonization. The Minister is to receive a salary of $7 000 per annum. The Order-in-Council also provides that "as the Prime Minister will no longer receive the salary attached to the office of President of the Privy Council, a salary of beating the devil around the bush. He evidently wanted to give us the business, but he hated like the devil on pass up his to pass up his Minister." The salary of the Secretary and instructive throughout, of State for External Affairs is fixed at Mrs. Dan Thompson was called to "I got into your $7,000 per annum.

a patient for loss of memory?" Doctor
"Oh' yes, indeed. I employ a bill collector quite often,"—Boston Transtript.

S., for a few weeks.

Up-River Doings

St. Stephen, N. B. Nov. 28. "Ven you put it on the seems to think market come and see we have a pretty me." Miss Jennie Stuart was the hostess last was held in the Baptist Church at Penn-Wednesday to the Sewing Club, of which field on Thursday evening last. she is a member. This evening the club way to his plate.

"Kind of him." said he after a moment. "Did he sign a contract?"

"It wasn't made out." Orde remindmeets at the home of Mrs. Robert Nixon. Miss Etta DeWolfe, who went to Boston some two weeks ago for medical adice, is reported to be greatly improved, nuch to the joy of her friends. Mrs. Sedgefield Webber has returned from a visit to St. John. Mr Peter Welch, of Waltham, Mass., Lever recently. of his brother, Postmaster Welch.

"It all looks queer to me. Heinzman's got something up his sleeve. Why should be take a bond with that security from us? If we can't deliver the logs, our company fails; that makes the stock worthless; that makes the bond worthless—just when it is needed. Of course, it's as plain as the nose on your face that be thinks the proposition a good one and is trying to get control."

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Nelson, have gone to Boston to make their future home, much to the regret of hosts of friends.

Mr. Eldridge C. Short has been elected cashier of the Calais National Bank, to succeed Mr. Edwin Nelson who recently resigned.

Mrs. J. M. Deacon received a cablegram last week containing the sorrowful news that her eldest son, Private Melville N. Deacon had been wounded in France. cashier of the Calais National Bank, to at St. Stephen.

Deacon had been wounded in France.

"Orde, you're all right on the river," tois week, by Mrs. M. C. Buchanan, say-laughed Newmark, "but you're a babe ing that her husband, Lieut. M. C. Buchaat this game."

"But Heinzman is honest," cried Orde. "Why, he is a church member and has a class in Sunday school."

The corners of Newmark's mouth were twitching quietly with amusement.

Mrs. O, S, Newnham, wife of the eseemed rector of Christ Church, is very Il this week at her home

A cablegram was received in St. Stephen Kavanaugh. tois week, by Mrs. M. C. Buchanan, say nan, had been wounded in France. Lieut, work in this section. Buchanan went overseas with the 115th.

"This just came by special messenger" be explained.

It was from Heinzman and requested an immediate interview. Orde delayed only long enough to get Mr. Welton's signature then hastened away.

Heinzman in Found awaiting him.

"I suppose you would not be prepared to gif a bond."

"thingly think so."

"thingly think so."

"the suppose we ux him this way, went on Heinzman clasping his hands over his rotund stomach and beaming through his spectacles; "Proctor and I har talked it ofer, and we are agreed that the probosition is a good one; also we think it is well to help the young fellers along." He laughed stleently in such a manner as to shake himself all over. "Ve do not vish to be too severe, and yet ve mustaget our owns on time. So if you gif us a bond secured with stock in the new comorder of the control "I know it." stated Newmark posi-hour. There was a programme of sing-tively.

"But if he refuses to deliver the logs ing and recitation." O, Canada" was no court of law will"—

"Law!" cried Newmark. "Refuse to with great heartness. A quartette of the court deliver! You don't know that kind. men sang in grand style "Rule Britannia" and received such an encore that 'they just be a lot of inevitable delays, and his foreman will misunderstand, and all that " National Anthem was sung, The members of the Association intend to enter upon their campaign work at once.

Miss Maude Marks has sold her store, on Water Street, to Mr. James McAllister, who has occupied it for several years as a feed and grass store.

The Wa-Wa Club met with Mrs. John Jones this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Algar have returned from a visit to St. John.

pears in the Canada Gazette of the creation of the Department of Immigration party was held in Red Men's Hall on to pass up his rules—you know how those old shellbacks are."

to pass up his rules—you know how those old shellbacks are."

held by Sir Robert Borden); whose office, an illustrated fecture in Paul's Hail on Wednesday evening. His subject was who "Missions amongst the North West holds the recognized position of First Indians." The lecture was interesting > Pennfield this week-by the death of her Caller—"Doctor, have you ever treated patient for loss of memory?" Doctor—on Wednesday afternoon.

Robert McKay, of L'Etang, was the guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McKay. The Parish Sunday School Convention

ROLLING DAM, N. B.

Nov. 28. Mrs. Bobzby, of Alaska, is spending the winter with her mother, Mrs. Agnes Acheson. Mrs. Joseph Wrigley spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mitchell at

Mrs. Robert McKinney is quite poor Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Nelson, have gone Quite a number of our people attended

Nomination at St. Andrews. C. E. McCann and C. D. Goodill at Mr. Eldridge C. Short has been elected tended the "Win the War" convention

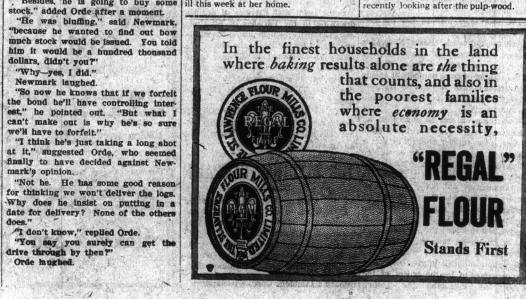

Mrs. James McCrum is Mrs. H. A. Johnson is spending the vinter with her husband at North Brook Mrs. Cynthia Minison is spending the winter with her daughter. Mrs. Charles

A. G. Stuart, bridge builder of St.George with a crew of men, have been doing

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mitchell, of Leves, Battalion, and was a very popular officer, visited Mr. and Mrs. Maurice McCann

> Howard Trafton, of the Eastern Pulp ecently looking after the pulp-wood.

Makes Baking a Success

Always the promise of the dough is fulfilled in the golden brown product of the oven when the house-

PURITY FLOUR

More Bread and Better Bread---and Better Pastry, too.

KENNEDY'S HOTEL

St. Andrews, N. B. A. KENNEDY & SON, PROPRIETORS

Beautifully Situated on Water Front. Near Trains and Steamboats. Closed for the winter. Will reopen in June. Rates quoted on application.

THE ROYAL HOTEL LEADING HOTEL AT

ST. JOHN, N. B. Conducted on European Plan in Most Modern and Approved Manner NEW GARDEN RESTAURANT 200 Rooms - 75 With Bath

THE RAYMOND & DOHERTY CO., PROP.

We Can Supply You

WITH ANYTHING IN THE

Hardware, Mill, Plumbing and Steamfitting Lines

And You Will Always Find Our Goods of the Better Grade

WE carry a large and complete stock and give you the same LOW PRICES on orders sent in by mail as are given by our salesmen. 9 We are looking for your trade and want to have you feel that it is our earnest endeavor to serve you promptly, economically and satisfactorily.

MAIL ORDERS A SPECIALTY

Whenever your mail orders are not handled to your entire satisfaction, you will do us a favor by advising us at once.

On Orders Over $5.00 We Prepay Express Charges

T. McAVITY & SONS, LTD., ST. JOHN, NEW BRUNSWICK