

MORE MONEY FOR MISSIONS

Maritime Baptists to Increase Expenditure Four Fold

Missionary Staff to be Increased Three Fold

Committee on Canadian Baptist Union to be Continued

HALIFAX, N. S., Aug. 25.—The convention of the United Baptists of the Maritime Provinces is making good progress with its work. Three sessions were held today and a great deal of business was disposed of. A decision to increase its missionary staff threefold and its expenditures for missions fourfold was reached at the morning session. Foreign missions occupied nearly all the time of the meeting and the reading of the lengthy report presented by the committee dealing with that subject occupied more than an hour.

When the convention opened the first business taken up was the report of the committee on United Baptist ministers' annuity funds. They reported that their income did not meet the demands of the fund and the legislation committee reported through E. D. King, K.C. It referred to legislation asked for relating to amalgamation of the annuity fund and reported that all which could be done by the committee had been done. The move for amalgamation was reported in the report of the committee on Canadian Baptist Union presented by Rev. Dr. Hutchinson, and was seconded by Hon. G. E. Foster, who reported that had been done so far and recommended that the committee be continued. There was considerable discussion on this clause all the speakers agreeing that this result could be attained. The clause passed unanimously. The report as a whole was adopted with amendment. The report of the Foreign Mission Board was presented by Rev. W. V. Higginson. It reported that many subjects were touched on and the committee recommended that a big increase be made in contributions for foreign missions from the Maritime Provinces.

The report estimated that the share of the Maritime Province must be at least one-third of the whole. This would give as a foreign missionary problem the task of reaching two million souls (the population of our Pelilla mission), supply of 30 missionaries (not including the wives) and annual expenditure of $120,000. This we think is the lowest estimate that should make it. It is the policy of the church to have a missionary force of two and a half times the number of the present force. The present income of the Maritime Province is $1,000,000. Let us take out of this $1,000,000 for the keeping of all churches and for various forms of benevolence not included in our convention fund. There would be left $700,000 for our denominational work at home and abroad which would give foreign missions, say, $250,000 or about three times our present.

At the opening of the afternoon session Rev. Chas. M. Woodward of Vancouver and Rev. Mr. Morse of Windsor, were invited to seats at the convention. A notice of motion by Rev. R. O. Morse re the changing of the date of the convention, was the first business dealt with. The motion which follows caused considerable discussion: Change article 4 of the constitution by striking out the words "first Saturday after 15th of August and substituting therefor the words "first Thursday in September."

The motion was seconded by Rev. J. H. MacDonald. The discussion on the motion was lively and the speakers included Rev. J. E. Wilson, Rev. David Price, Rev. F. B. Bishop, Rev. J. H. Jones, Dr. DeWolfe and E. D. King.

Rev. Mr. Fennel and Dr. DeWolfe both moved amendments to the motion, and the president (Dr. O'Connell) ruled that both were out of order. The motion to change the date when put to a vote was lost, only six of the delegates voting for the change.

Rev. I. W. Porter moved that a committee be appointed to secure legislation in order for the association to get a clear title to such property that came to the association when the union was formed. This to apply to property, the title of which is at present not clear. The report of the treasurer on the ministerial education board was read and accepted.

The report of the committee on the laymen's missionary movement was presented and adopted. The report commended that the convention appropriate the services of the late T. B. Simms for the work in connection with the movement. The report gave a brief resume of the work of the past year along this line and expressed regret that some of the pastors and churches had not done all they might have done.

The committee recommended that a central board be established at Halifax for Nova Scotia and one at St. John for New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island.

M. Y. Meyer of the Baptist Publication Society, Boston, was introduced, and pointed out the need of having a Baptist book room in the Maritime Provinces and said that he would assist in every way.

The evening session was devoted to foreign missions. Rev. W. V. Higginson, secretary for foreign mission board, presided and addresses were delivered by Rev. I. C. Archibald, Miss Blackadar, Miss Winnifred Eaton, Miss Lohr, Miss Knowles, Woods Hagar, and Gordon P. Barrs of Dartmouth.

WOMAN FOUND IN HAY LOFT IN SEMI-CONSCIOUS STATE

Mrs. Benson's Grief for Help Attracted Searchers—Found Three Miles From Her Home.

A telephone message from Belleisle last evening conveyed the information that Mrs. William C. Benson, who was taken away from her home on Wednesday last, was found yesterday afternoon shortly before one o'clock. The discovery was made just in the nick of time, saving her from death. As it is, she is greatly weakened and may not recover.

The parties started out in search for the woman yesterday morning, as they had been accustomed to during the last few days. During the whole morning, however, no information whatever was received which would furnish a clue as to the whereabouts of the woman, whose condition, between two and one o'clock, however, a cry for help was heard. The woman, who was in a pitiable condition, was choking and was calling to her brother for assistance. The cry came from the hay loft where she was discovered lying in a semi-conscious condition, greatly weakened by the lack of food and rest. The woman was found with a hat and a pair of shoes on her feet and a handkerchief in her pocket. She was unable to give any information as to where she was and how she got there. Her condition was such that she was unable to move and had to be carried to her home, where everything possible was done to alleviate her pain and better her condition.

The woman is demoralized from long illness. In view of the conditions around the barn and other conditions there, it is believed that the woman went to the barn every night since Wednesday last, and in the day time she would take to the woods, where she would roam for miles, picking up whatever food she found on the way on which she managed to exist. She entered the barn on Saturday night and her weakness was unable to remove herself in the morning. She is believed to have remained there all day Sunday and yesterday morning, finding herself in such a weak condition and choking, she called to her brother for aid, which she could not get. She was found in a pitiable condition, and which might have proved fatal if it had not been for the cry for assistance.

Last evening Mrs. Benson was in a very weak condition and unable to walk for nearly a week, and also from walking day after day through the woods.

WILL REFORM FRENCH NAVY NOW

PARIS, Aug. 25.—Admiral de Paperyere, the new minister of marine, is engaged in a complete reorganization of the French navy.

In an interview with a representative of the Matin he declared that the number of squadrons in the navy would depend on the number of battleships available, but provision was made for a minimum of five squadrons of four vessels each.

Discussing the question of armored cruisers, the admiral declared that he was not in favor of this type of warship.

"Our vessels ought to be capable of confronting any battleships," explained the admiral. "I do not think that speed can compensate for disproportion in armament and protection. If an effort has to be made, let it be complete."

"Concerning torpedo boat destroyers and submarines, I consider that they are indispensable for the protection of our coasts. They are not inferior to accompany the main squadrons. From this they are detached by their own tonnage. In short, their function is to be vessels of offensive defense."

The new minister has resolved to strike off all obsolete vessels, among which are the Courbet, Formidable, Six and Eclair, and as for "sautes" who are to be found everywhere except on board their ships, "a merciless campaign is to be undertaken against them."

Although the public schools of the city open on Thursday morning only two hundred permits have been issued so far. As the average in recent years has been between five and six hundred and there is every reason to believe that the number will be fully as large this year the staff in the trustees office is likely to be kept busy for the next few days.

One of the chief reasons for the delay in taking out permits is said to be the regulation requiring a certificate of vaccination to accompany all applications for permits. To meet the needs of those who do not care to pay a doctor's fee for the vaccination, the Board of Health has been giving free treatment to those who wish it. Only sixty have availed themselves of this so far, but as another opportunity will be given this afternoon and again on Wednesday afternoon it is likely that a large number will still apply at the office of the Board.

The steadily increasing number of families who spend the summer in the country has also something to do with the delay in taking out permits.

MOBBING KING EDWARD

King Edward was assured by the authorities that he would not be molested at Marlborough this season, but he was so badly mobbed the first day that he had serious thoughts of leaving immediately. The nuisance has been mitigated somewhat since, but it is still pretty bad and the officers are constantly kept on the qui vive by virtue of the king's suite.

Edward is walking much more than usual, and is playing croquet daily with the members of his suite. This year among the ladies most accomplished in the king's entourage is Mrs. Mrs. Eliza, which she thought to be a compliment, being flattered up. It will have a wing specially prepared and always ready for the king's use. The king's husband, Forbes Robertson, and the three baby girls.

ANGLO-AMERICAN LETTERS

The Postmaster General has asked the Chamber of Commerce to ascertain the views of its members on the question of closing the American mails on Friday evening instead of 4 p. m. on Saturday, thus enabling letters to be delivered in New York on the following morning.

It is argued that London business men do not work on Saturday and that the great bulk of the American letters are now posted on Friday evening. No mails from America reached England in time for replies by the Saturday boats.

As a matter of fact the Saturday boats from New York are now so slow that their letters are delivered in London only one day earlier than the letters leaving New York four days later.

DOCTORS WILL LOOK INTO WORTMAN'S MENTAL STATE

HAMPTON, N. B., Aug. 25.—In the criminal court of the Kings County court today before His Honor Judge Wedderburn, the cause of the King on the complaint of Robt. W. Graves against Ainos Wortman, charged with setting fire to barns in the parish of Waterford on the night of July 21st last, was resumed. Mr. G. W. Fowler appearing for the complainant, who has returned from the United States, stated that he had been in the preliminary trial before Magistrate Hornbrook, which was held on the 21st of July, and that he would be required to give evidence until the sitting of the circuit court in September, which explanation was made by counsel to account for his absence on Wednesday last.

William Austin, who lives about a mile from the burned premises, saw the fire and thought he discerned someone moving about the fire west of the building back of the barn, but could not tell if it was a man or woman.

Charles Mullet was recalled to tell of a conversation he had with the accused in jail after the court adjourned on Wednesday, 18th instant. He said the prisoner sent for him by a messenger and he was accompanied by the prisoner's father.

Mr. McIntyre objected to the witness giving the conversation, but after questions as to promises or threats being given to induce a confession had been met by denial, the objection was withdrawn and the conversation allowed. Witness said accused took me into the cell or room where he slept in the night. I said: "Amos, what in heaven's name did you do to that man?" He replied: "I don't know what he did for." I said: "You put me to an awful expense." He said: "I know I did and I am sorry for it." I said: "In your heart and soul you know that if you did not do it you were alone." He said: "I know I was. I shook hands with him, bid him goodbye and with his father went out and down to the station."

Witness was sharply cross-examined by Mr. McIntyre especially as to his movements here last Wednesday, his drinking and the meaning of his remark as to his awful expense. In answering the latter witness uttered an oath, for which Judge Wedderburn severely reprimanded him and made him apologize.

After recess there was considerable argument between counsel as to the procuring admission of confessions and the use of constables' witnesses and the use of constables' witnesses and the use of constables' witnesses and the use of constables' witnesses.

The afternoon was mainly taken up with the evidence of the complainant, Robert W. Graves, who testified that he first saw the fire on the night of July 21st, 1898, at about six o'clock. He had purchased the farm in Mechanics Settlement, upon which the burned buildings were located, where he spends about three months each year up to this year he has camped against the house, together with their furniture, on the second night of residence they were awakened by some noise like a bottle dashed against the window and his wife moved their camping outfit and some other furnishings to the house, together with their trunk. On the second night of residence they were awakened by some noise like a bottle dashed against the window and his wife moved their camping outfit and some other furnishings to the house, together with their trunk.

The flames were so fierce that they were like a searchlight, everything being clear and distinct for a great distance around. He found foot tracks to and from the barn and the place where he saw the prisoner standing next day and also on the same course. He told his wife that night of having seen and recognized the prisoner, and also told Bustin and Kelly next day. At the close of his cross-examination His Honor told Graves he would be required to give evidence until the sitting of the circuit court in September, which explanation was made by counsel to account for his absence on Wednesday last.
