GROSS INJUSTICE.

Some of the Best Men on the Constabulary Force Diamissed.

The trouble in the county constabul ary is not going to be adjusted by the discharge of a few constables who are really suffering because they have been doing the work of the county. A gross sesions are, may as well understand the iniquity they have perpetrated is not duty when called upon. That is all. going to meet with public approval. What has been done may suit Major Coogan, but it doesn't suit the views vices should be dispensed with. If the of the people, and both Major Coogan and the judge are simply public employees paid to do what the people specifically require them to do.

Present indications point to thorough investigation into the work- have cleaned out the whole outfit from ingo of the constabulary. Detective from the high constable down. Campeau, who has at different times worked with both men, speaks in the highest terms of Constables Illingsworth, Waffle and Constable Mouregor, and the latter particularly is very generally looked upon as being the most efficient and trustworthy man on the force in Chatham. These three scalps have utterly ignored any of his men either Constable McRener &r a Planet representative. That the staff was very hadly in need of reorganization is certain; but it would seem that, with the very best of intentions, a mistake had been made in the mapper of its reconstruction. Those who should know whereof they speak declare it to be an unwise policy to either take up or drop a man in the constabulary at the request of residents in the neighborhood where he lives and works. An indolent man will they do we do not want any interfers the below they do we do not want any interfers the below therefore resolved to sacrince the was therefore resolved to sacrince the children with herself. Kovaloff, who had hitherto been the lives and works. An indolent man will they do we do not want any interfers the below to sacrince the children with herself. be useless, harmless, inoffensive and a general favorite; the officer who does his duty and does it fearlessly and well will make enemies, and for this reason the policy adopted is, or a pears to be, unsound both in theory and in practice.

That lack of harmony did very seriously impair the efficiency of the force may be illustrated by a little incident occurring very recently. A thief was him s esping in Gardiner's livery barn. Not being certain that a warrant was cut for his, arrest. Hingsworth took by which he can similarly transmit counsel with McGregor. The latter phone, Blenheim, but the man he globe. wanted, a Mir. Laing, lived about two miles cut and was sent for to answer the 'pione. Instead of Boing this be drave in to Chatham; but so much time had elapsed that by the time he reached here the thief was gone. When he came in he informed the constables that for twelve months a warrant for the man's arrest has been in the hands of the high constable and that a reward of $30 was offered for his apprehension. One of the constables in question maintains that the man has frequently been a Chatham a week at a time on seve. i occasions and would have been taken long ago had the force known that he was wanted.

The sessions, and as we say, who are the sessions, should meet again. They should attempt to act in the interests of the county instead of meeting the views of individuals. McGregor and Dennis particularly should be reinstated. If Judge Bell and the high constable do not like them, why, let Judge Bell and the high constable resign. This county can get along without either of them. It has been a notorious fact that the high constable and his subordinates have not been able to work harmoniously. They asser# that the is unreasonable and unnecessarily of touchy." The consequence is he has borrowed trouble, and fallen out trich them, according to their stores on the most unreasonable pretences. It has been dinned into the ears of The Planet for months, but a chance ! give the Government until now this paper has said nothing fander. To be the head of a con tabulary force a man must be above all

WONDERS OF ELECTRICITY

Electrical invention continues progress with wonderful strides. Nicola Tesla, the electrician, tells in an interview that he has succeeded in his life dream of perfecting a telegraphic system by which he can transmit nieswantel. Constable Illingsworth saw sages through the earth a distance of twenty miles without wires, and that he can produce practical instruments messages to the uttermost parts of the

A trial was made at Hartford, Conn., a few days ago of the new three rail system of electric road, which does mway, with the trolley. The run of ten miles between New Britain and Hartford, was made in thirteen and a half minutes, and with less jar than is ordinarily experienced in a steam passenger train. Stretches of the route were covered much faster than a mile a minute. It is believed the new development will emable the railways to displace steam power by electricity without the necessity of abandoning their valuable road-beds.

Blenheim is taking a sensible pre contion regarding its permanent improvements. It has decided to require its granolithic contractors to guarantes their work for five years.

The railway pass system, by which it is sought to influence members of parliament, is being overdone. The other day Mr. Rogers, M. P., received a pass over a road which has not yet been commenced.

dent of The Daily News, who went to Tireaspol, Russia, about 70 miles northwest of Odessa, to inquire into the cause of the self-immolation of a number of persons belonging to the religious sect known as the Raskolniki, says he learns that Feedore Kovaloff, on whose premises the bodies of fifteen victims were found, including those of Kovaloff's wife and two children, will probably not be indicted for the part he took in bringing about the deaths of these victims. After a formal inquiry is made into his men-tal condition he will in all likelihood be confined in a monastery.

One of the chief personalities of a drama enacted at Ternofka, near Tireaspol, was a woman called Vitalia, who aspor, was a woman cancer transport, was a prophet, priest and preacher. She was the daughter of respectable, welf-to-do parents, and was fairly well educated. She entered an orthodox convent in her youth, but later joined the Raskolniki. Some time ago she suddenly vanished, and was not heard of until her body was exhumed at Ternofka.

At the time of her self-immolation she was 40 years old. She was of an ascetic temperament, with commanding MR. WHITNEY SHOULD MAKE IT CLEAR.

While Mr. Whitney is on this tour he should make it clear that Dominion and Ontario politics have no connection. Grit papers have been circulating the slander that Sir Charles Tüpper, Hon. Geo. E. Mr. Robert Birmingham was interviewed while in Windsor, and his published interview, which may or may figure, and was possessed of persuasive

Packed in Like Sardines

London, June 9.—The special corres-pondent of The Daily News at Tiraspol describes, in a second letter to-day, the scene at the place of entombment. He ays the spaces were so cramped that he victims were obliged to pack them-elves in like sardines, heads and feet selves in like sardines, heads and feet alternately. One scooped a cavity in the clayer wall with his fingers to give room to lay his head and shoulders.

The interments all took place in the night time. The victims donned their best clothes, then their funeral shrouds and prostrated themselves resignedly and silently, always in the presence of some passive co-fanatic. There was not a single involuntary moan or movement while Kovaloff with his spade slowly covered them. covered them.

London, June 8 .- At the Royal Mill tary Tournament at the Agricultural Hall, Islington, in the bayoner team fedting to-day, between the regulars and the ecfonials, the prize was carried of by the 48th Canadian Highlanders.

The above news reached the city at about 5 o'clock last night by a cable-gram from Major Henderson to the Highlanders here, which read as follows: "We won against combined picked team composed of Coldstreams, Grenadiers and Seats Guards." The cablegram was bulletined in The World window and caused much rejoicing among the local volunteers, particularly of course the 48th, the members of which were the recipients of many hearty congratulations from their comrades in sister corps.

A VERY SAD DROWNING

Albert Kendrick Aged 14, Swept Ove Burk's Falls on a Plank. Burk's Falls. Ont., June S.—A very sad drowning accident occurred here about 10.30 this morning. Albert Kendrick, 14-year-old son of Mr. John Kendrick of this place, while crossing the dam at the falls, stepped on a plank, which, on account of the rapidly rising water, was swept over the falls, carrying the boy with it. The body was seen floating in the eddy below for a few seconds, but has not yet been recovered. Sincere sympathy is felt for the bereaved family. The father, who is dying of cancer, is almost frantic.

THE BASEBALL RECORD.

Toronto, June 8.—Toronto and Scranton met again this afternoon at the Island and played one of the greatest games on re-cord. For ten innings the score board showed a succession of blanks on each side, showed a succession of blanks on each side, but Gillon was caught for three hits in the eleventh and scored them all. Then the Scrantons got on to Dineen for a single and a friple and scored 1 before the side was out. It was a pitchers' duel, no errors being recorded. Score: Toronto 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 3-3
