ANTI-SEMITE MAYOR WINS. Austria's Emperor Compelled to Accept

Him on His Fourth Election. Emperor Francis Joseph has privately the anti-semite leader, to the burgo- ately after the declaration of war. that his election will be gazetted on Sunday. On April 8 the municipal council of Vienna by a vote of 93 to 39 elected Dr. Lueger burgomaster for the fourth time. The first time he was elected he declined to accept the office because his majority was not large enough to meet his views. His second election was annulled by the emperor who was opposed to the anti-Semite agitation. Thereafter he was elected for the third time, but was advised by the emperor to resign, which he did. Herr Strohbach was elected in his stead with the understanding that he would retire when the time was propitious for another election of Dr. Lueger. The recent general elections in Austria showed that there was an opportunity to place
