

PLING RHYMES

BY WALT MASON

Dull Campaign

Who cares about the issues? Let statesmen sprain the tissues of larynx, lung and throat; we will not linger near them, we will not pause to hear them, for here's our choicest choicest. Who cares a prune or prism for this or t'other ism, since autumn zephyrs blow? Our problems may be deeper—but gasoline is cheaper than 'twas a month ago. The statesman talk and twitter, but where is the critter who'll list to what they say? The roads are fine and dandy, the good tin car is handy, and so we drive away.

LADY'S APRON.

By Anabel Worthington.

In "just aprons" there is just as much care taken by the modern housekeeper in making a selection as by the choice of the dress that such garment may cover and protect; and justly so, for in putting her house in order one wants to be in order in her dressing.

The serviceable garment in the illustration is made attractive with a yoke facing. The front is slashed and finished for lacing, as the apron slips on over the head. An elastic at the waistline takes care of the fullness and evenly distributes it in the skirt section. Bead is employed as a finish for the neck, sleeves, and to trim the envelope pocket in each front.

It is now customary to wear an apron without a dress when it has sleeves and completely covers the wearer; this design is one that will serve as a dress, if your work demands a large part of the morning hours.

Linen, dotted percale, gingham and like fabrics are appropriate for such garment. It requires no effort to copy such a simple design.

The apron pattern, No. 8000, is cut in one size only. To make it will require 3 1/2 yards of 36 inch material.

To obtain the pattern send 10 cents to the office of this publication.

Get Busy Stay Busy

Never again will you get as many votes. Better take advantage of them now, while they are large, as there will be a big cut next week. Are you to be a winner or a loser? This week's work will tell.

Are the prizes that the Courier is Giving Away not worth a big effort on your part. If you can truthfully say that they are not, then we will stop urging you on further with the work. But stop and consider the fortune you can make in the next four weeks, and you will get busy and get results now.

The contest is fast nearing an end. Are the judges going to read your name as a winner of the Grand Prize Dodge Bros. Touring Car, or are you going to be contented as a winner of some small prize? Results will tell. Success will crown your effort. The slogan this week, "Get Busy." Keep busy and get results. Success and failure both have the same number of letters. Which is to be yours?

On Exhibition at BULLER BROS. and NEWMAN AND SONS' Jewellery Stores.
