

Stratford Presbytery.

The Stratford Presbytery met Tuesday, Nov. 10th, in Knox church, Stratford. Owing to the absence of Moderator A. H. Drumm, who was attending a funeral, the Rev. J. M. Cameron was appointed moderator pro tem. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted. The report of committee anent the appointing of moderators by the clerk was received. It was decided hereafter to have the appointment made from the congregation whose session has been the longest unrepresented in the moderator's chair.

The consideration of the death of the Rev. Mr. Scott, of Brookside, was here taken up and Rev. Mr. Hamilton read a suitable minute which was adopted by the Presbytery. It is as follows:—

Since last meeting the Presbytery has been called on to mourn the loss of the Rev. Robert Scott, one of its members, who died on Oct. 3rd, after some weeks of severe affliction, which he endured with great resignation to the will of God. The Presbytery would put on record an expression of the loss it feels has been sustained by the church and the congregation through his early death. For about twelve years he labored among his people with great zeal and unwearied diligence, endeavoring to win them to a knowledge of the truth by faithfully preaching Christ and Him crucified. The Presbytery would express sympathy with the congregation in losing a minister who was so devoted to their highest interests and pray that they may soon find another to break among them the bread of life. The Presbytery would also express deep sympathy with his widow in the great loss of the partner of her life, with whom she was so much in harmony in the work of the Master. May He who has promised to be a husband to the widow, be always seen by her to be true to His promise; and may his bereaved soul be enabled to make the God of His Father his own covenant God in Jesus Christ and experience the blessedness and peace of following Jesus.

According to the law of the Presbyterian church, on motion of Rev. Robt. Hamilton, the name of the Rev. Robt. Scott was struck from the roll of the Presbytery and the meeting engaged in prayer.

Rev. Mr. Pyke, of Shakespeare, was appointed to declare the pulpit of Brookside and Burn's churches vacant, and to act as moderator of the sessions of these two churches during the pulpit vacancy.

Rev. Robert Hamilton was granted leave of absence for four months to enable him to visit the Holy Land with Principal Caven.

Reports were presented from the different schemes of the church which were adopted.

Both of his hands were securely fastened in a bear trap. He had evidently been in the act of setting the trap when by some means the trap closed upon his wrists with a vice-like grip. Unable to release himself and with no hope of making his voice heard in that vast wilderness, he suffered the most excruciating mental tortures until starvation and exposure combined ended his existence. His wrists were frightfully lacerated where an attempt had been made to wrench his hands free.
