

Calcedonia, West River, St. Mary's. Mr. Editor: Will you have the kindness to insert in your paper the undermentioned: I had been subjected for over 23 years to pains in my back and hip, caused originally by a severe cold, and I procured and applied every article that could be thought of for such a case, but found no permanent relief until I bought some salve and liniment manufactured by Dr. L. Berry, and after a few applications found permanent relief, and have not since been troubled with the same, which is now over three years. I wish you to insert this, not as an advertisement for Dr. L. Berry, but that the public, or those who are alike troubled as I was, may find relief from their sufferings. Please insert this as a favor for one of your subscribers. Yours, &c., DUNCAN CUMMINGS.

Should we be so unfortunate as to be visited by the cholera this summer every individual should guard against an attack by all the means at command, one of the most effective of which would be a frequent use of Blood's Rheumatic Compound.

ADDRESSES expressive of the sympathy of the nation with the QUEEN and the members of the ROYAL Family, in the affliction which the attempt on the life of PRINCE ALFRED must have occasioned, have been presented to Her Majesty by both houses of the Imperial Parliament. On the announcement of the said intelligence by cable despatch to the Dominion Government at Ottawa, similar addresses were at once adopted by the Senate and the Commons. Civilization had scarcely recovered from the shock which the cold-blooded assassination of Mr. McGEHE had occasioned, when humanity is again outraged by an attempt to murder a youth, for no other reason, probably, than that he was the son of our beloved QUEEN. The heart sickens at the fiendish barbarity which these crimes evince. Farrell, the would-be assassin, has been sentenced to death.
