

STRIKE OF 15,000 EMPLOYEES.

At Glen Falls, N. Y., Paper Mills, Called off.

Glen Falls, N. Y., Dec. 6.—Shortly after the strike of 15,000 Union employees of Newspaper Mills in New York and New England went into effect this morning, J. T. Carrie, president of the International Brotherhood of Papermakers sent the men a message, instructing them to keep the mills running and notifying them the War Labor Board would soon render a decision regarding the wage increase, which precipitated the strike. As the result of this message it was decided to resume operations at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the mills in this city and adjacent towns, employing three thousand men.

Carl Bigelow of Truro, N. S. one of the best and most popular baritone singers in the Eastern provinces, has been secured as the special soloist for the anniversary services, of St. Andrew's Church on Sunday next Dec. 8th, no lover of music in this town, should miss the privilege of hearing him.—Daily News, Lunenburg, Dec. 5.

WELCOME SOCIAL.

A reception of welcome was held at the Pleasant Street Methodist Church, December 5th, in honor of the Normal and Agricultural College students.

It was a very informal affair, and a splendid opportunity was given the students to become acquainted. Rev. G. W. F. Glendenning, Pastor of the church, gave an address of welcome, which was followed by a short program of entertainment. Refreshments were served, and all reported a very enjoyable evening.

PIANO RECITAL BY PUPILS OF MISS EVELYN DAVIS.

A piano Recital was given by the pupils of Miss Evelyn Davis, December 4th, at her home on Cottage Street. During intermission, fudge was sold and a collection was taken, the proceeds amounting to $10.50 which will be used for Red Cross work.

The pupils were Helen McCallum, Esther Davis, Aileen Davis, Jennie Bloise, and Maimie Betts.

The program presented was a splendid one, consisting of two parts, with eleven numbers to each part.

The pupils played remarkably well, giving great credit to their teacher.

The Quick Way to Stop a Cough

This home-made syrup does the work in a hurry. Really prepared, and saves about 6¢.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too—children like it—and it is pure and good. Pour 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) in a 16-oz. bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Thus you make 16 ounces—a family supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup. And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops directly. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes. To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. Signaller H. E. Fowle, of the 17th Battalion, who has been at Camp Hill Hospital, under medical treatment for shattered arm, the word was received at the Arras fight, was taken down with "Flu" and was sent to the Coganwell Street Hospital Halifax. He is now recovering, and will soon be out of quarantine.

OBITUARY.

Mr. Angus McIvor.

The remains of Mr. Angus McIvor of Gulf Shore were laid to rest in the family lot in St. Andrews Cemetery, Fox Harbor, on Friday afternoon, November 29th. He was 81 years of age. Mr. McIvor was born in Gulf Shore, where he was a respected citizen and a prosperous farmer. About 30 years ago he and his wife, who was formerly Miss Mary McLanders of River John, moved to California, where they have since resided until two years ago when they came to Gulf Shore. He is survived by his widow.

Rev. J. R. Millar, of Pugwash conducted the burial services.

German prisoners, employed at C. G. R. work are to be sent to the internment camp at Amherst, and will be held there until the conclusion of peace.

CAPT. REV. A. J. McDONALD WITH THE MEN WHO ENTERED MONS.

Extracts From Letters Before and After the Signing of The Armistice.

November 5.—We came about 12 miles yesterday in lorries and had a regular triumphal procession. We came thru a large city. They simply lined the streets and waved their hands; and kisses and flowers were in abundance. Sometimes an old lady would make a sign that she wanted us to decapitate the Boche when we overtake him. The most of the old people remained behind. I went to see the Cure—a sweet faced old man of 70 years. These people have just been four years in prison—and oh don't they appreciate what Canada has done. We are getting our reward now. How I wish I knew more French—we are learning all we can. We are now among the people who suffered the most and they are overjoyed at seeing Canadian soldiers. They were sick and tired of seeing Boche Soldiers.

Nov. 9.—We are pressing back the line. He is blowing up the roads and the fall rains make them almost impassable I mean the fields. The heavy transport is simply horrible to carry along thru this loamy soil of Belgium. I ride on horseback now and I was riding for hours and hours the other night I did not get to bed till 1 a.m. Yesterday we came in triumph to this town. The people received us with great joy as their liberators and placed their homes at our disposal. They have beautiful homes and appear to be excellent people. It is almost worth the whole struggle to see the joy and rapture. Boys and girls are singing in the streets we are treated like princes; in the best houses in the town and in rooms—sleeping within linen coffee every whistitch; they receive us as our people. When I was a boy when any neighbor came in the house it was always put on the fire. These people offer coffee as soon as we enter their home. They can't do enough. Yesterday I discovered there was a Protestant Church in the neighboring town and I arranged for a service there at 9.30 this morning.

It was a mile and a half walk so we had to cancel it but I had them as soon as at the door of the chateau where the Battalion had their H.Q. We had the loan of an organ; and had a splendid service I spoke from text; "If therefore the son shall make you free ye shall be free indeed." I had plenty of illustrations of freedom; and urged home the real freedom of the Christ gives. We sang—"Crown the thrones may perish—Kingdoms and wane" we had just heard that Kaiser had abdicated so it was significant to sing that hymn. This part of Belgium is very prosperous. They have good homes. Of the Boche took everything he could from them here and did not have time to do much damage.

Nov. 11th—Well the days of days come at last "Finis La Guerre" they say here; and there is great rejoicing. We had orders to move on to the city where the angels were seen in Aug. 1914 and then the orders were cancelled as the news of the signing of the Armistice came in. Such shaking of hands—civilians and soldiers mixing freely and felicitations are passed about.

Nov. 12—Another day has passed. We had a jaunt to the famous city this morning but saw no angels. The crowds of people—simply wonderful. This morning will never be forgotten by us we gathered at 9 a.m. in the Protestant Belgian Church here and had a solemn service of Thanksgiving. The singing was simply grand. The attendance left nothing to be desired. Everything was conducted in a reverent spirit. I was thrilled myself; the text was Ps. 46:3,9,10. It was a call to recognize God in our victory now and in our daily fight against sin. Officers and men were present in large numbers. The Pipe Band—led us to and from the church. The Pastor of the church gave a brief address of welcome and appreciation of the work—the Canadians had done in liberating them. It was very touching. By wireless we heard of the terms of the Armistice. One of the clauses is that an "army of occupation" occupy all west of the Rhine. We hear the Canadians are to form part of the army and I suppose I must go with them. One could not miss such an opportunity. I wonder what sort of a celebration you are having at home I suppose the country is wild with delight and no wonder.

It has been a big struggle and the surrender is complete. The terms are very severe. Affairs in Germany are at a low ebb when they accepted terms so humiliating. We expect to arrive at the Rhine by Dec. 17th and then our letters will be stamped "somewhere in Germany." We start on Sunday Nov. 17th and by stages it will take a month so that this year we spend our Christmas in Germany. The last fighting we did was in the streets of Mons, and yesterday a grand funeral was given to the eight of the 42nd Battalion Toronto which happened to be the one that was engaged. The I.C.R. band played. I saw Dalton Hobb of Lunenburg who plays in that band. They played for us July 26th; and the last time I heard them before, was in front of the Hamilton Hotel, Bermuda—April 1915.

In our march to Germany, the Engineers to first—to see if there are any devices or instruments left about to cause the troops any damage. We are certainly living in wonderful times!

Strong Men

The Nation needs strong men and the right time to begin to build up strong manhood is during the growing period of childhood. Many mothers remember, with keen satisfaction, the days when was one of the determining factors in building up the strength of their children. Scott's is a source of nourishment and strength that ought never be overlooked by the mother of today who is anxious about her fast-growing boy or girl.

TO CALIFORNIA.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Trapnell and Miss Jean Trapnell are here from St. John's Nfld. The latter is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Grant Goudge, while the parents are the guests of Mrs. Trapnell's sister, Mrs. C. A. Ryan. They leave Wednesday for California and will be located at Hollywood, Los Angeles, for the winter, with a view of permanently settling there.

The family were especially well liked in Nfld, and their departure is deeply regretted. Mr. and Mrs. Trapnell were residents of Windsor for a number of years, and their many friends here are always glad to see them, and will extend best wishes for future success and happiness in their new home in a warmer clime.

Mr. and Mrs. Trapnell lost a dear, brave and noble son, Corp. Donald, 14th Batt., 3rd Brigade, Royal Montreal Regt., who went over with the first contingent, Oct. 24th, 1914, and made the supreme sacrifice in one of the big drives in April of the following year. Last week they received word from their son, Grant Strathie, (recently wounded), that he had received the Military Medal. He was in the 66th Battery of the 14th Howitzer Brigade.

Mrs. Trapnell belonged to the Pres. W.P.A., and has the proud distinction of having knit over four hundred pairs of socks for the soldiers, while Miss Jean following her mother's splendid example, now numbers over three hundred pairs. One of the ladies of the Presbyterian W.P.A., at St. John's Dr. Harvie's widow, reached the 500 mark, and when these 500 pairs were completed, a few friends presented her with a beautiful piece of engraved silver to mark this unusual occasion. The part that women have played in this great war is splendid, and will never be forgotten.

THE VICTORY LOAN.

(By Rev. W. J. Dean.)

Ho! Canadians free,
By prairie and sea,
Here's the chance of your life to be helping:

Dig out all your gold,
Go to young and old,
And let the world know you're of the right mould.
To drive the Hun back to Berlin a'yelping.

Ho! Canadians brave:
Catch the crest of the wave,
While the wheels of your country are whirling:
Bring out all your wealth,
Deny the old self,
And let the world know you worship not self;
Show the Hun that your red blood is stirring.

Ho! Canadians true,
Who'd ever feel blue
While we've Currie, Fosh, Haig and now Pershing?
Invest in the Loan
Every dollar you own,
And let the world know you Honor enthroned;
Show the Hun the Dominion is flourishing.

Ho! Canadians all,
Short, stout, slim or tall,
Here's the chance of your life to be saving:
In this loyal way,
Prepare for "The Day"
And let the world know you're in this affray,
Till the Hun's made to quit his vile raving.
Methodist Parsonage,
Petite Riviere, Oct. 14, 1918.

Among the guests at the Stanley House, on December 5th, were:—
G. T. Douglas, Amherst; G. C. Bradley, Montreal; J. E. Cumming, New Glasgow and H. A. Clark, Montreal.

Particulars CUP H. CH. TEA

11-3w Your cup of Tea means much to you. It is more than an item in the daily fare. It is the one thing that "rounds off"—or spoils—an enjoyable repast. Tea is fortunately so cheap in this country that there are few who cannot afford Choice Tea. The cost per pound is only slightly higher than ordinary Tea, while the increased pleasure you get from every cup you make is worth many times the difference. It is true also, that a FLAVOR-FULL Tea like KING COLE Orange Pekoe will actually spend further—that is, make more cups to the pound. KING COLE Orange Pekoe is prepared particularly for lovers of Choice Tea.

Always the Same

"Beaver" Flour is as uniform in quality as a minted five dollar gold piece.

Its proportions are as accurately fixed, and as scientifically determined.

The wheats used in milling "Beaver" Flour are analyzed—and the percentages of gluten, starch etc. are found by chemical tests.

We know—

from years and years of experience—just how much western spring wheat to add to the choicest Ontario winter wheat—to obtain the desired strength.

BEAVER FLOUR

Equally good for Bread and Pastry.

Milled of Blended Wheat.

This is why "Beaver" Flour always gives good results—why it requires less shortening—why everything you make with it has a flavour that you cannot get with western spring wheat flours. Try "Beaver" Flour yourself for both Pastry and Bread—you'll find it equally good for either, and best for both. Remember, to insist on having "Beaver" Flour—the original blended wheat flour.
