COUNTY NEWS-LETTERS

Received from Our Own Correspondents During the past week.

PORTLAND.
DECEMBER 12.—On Saturday last a young lad named John Dowsett, while skating on the Rideau Lake, near this place, fell into an air hole and was drowned.

ELGIN.
DECEMBER 10.—John Fleming has gone to Kingston to work in a machine shop.

Mrs. Philip Halladay has gone west to leave for Florida, where they intend remaining through the winter.

The question now is in Elgin, who shall be postmaster? and as much always arises out for more, your correspondent thinks it will be John R. Dargavel.

Bad luck has attended the cheese makers in this section, but the patrons are dividing the loss and losing half.

GREENBUSH.
DECEMBER 12.—Dame Rumor states that one of our young men is about to join the Benedicts.

Mud Creek Charley (filled with bug juice) arrived after midnight, a few evenings ago in the company of another of the lower class. Their oaths and foul language were terribly disagreeable. They visited the residence of a lone widow, and after exhausting their vocabulary of vile and derisive language they departed. The next visit they make to our village they will receive a hot reception.

SPRING VALLEY.
DECEMBER 12.—Alex Morrison has sold his farm to Mr. J. Thompson of Westport.

Mr. B. Lane, of California, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Truman Hayes, of this place.

Mr. John Rappale starts for Ireland next week.

Mr. James Campbell has finished his threshing, a two week's job, but his barn and stables are large enough to hold still more. Most of his produce will be fed out on the farm, as he has about 50 head of beef cattle and other stock amounting to about 65 head.

FRONT OF YONGE.
DECEMBER 12.—Weather here is summer like.

Mrs. Samuel Hogaboom will not sell her stock and trade in Caintown, but will enter into and enlarge her business more extensively than heretofore.

Mr. M. Dunnean and J. Ferguson are doing an extensive business in coon hunting. They generally kill three a day and some partridges. Ormon Gibson takes a hand sometimes.

Mrs. Danean, of Caintown, has laid in a good supply of winter goods.

Mr. J. Ferguson, our great Ontario hunter, has arrived home from the North woods.

The hermit of Caintown is living sumptuously by himself in a pleasant cottage by the roadside.

ADDISON.
DECEMBER 9.—H. S. Moffatt has received orders from the Postmaster General to take charge of the mail carrying until tenders are received and decided upon.

Any teacher desiring a good salary, a fine school house and a pleasant village to reside in, would find it to their advantage to apply for Addison school. Good looking female preferred! Rats!

We are pleased to note the return of Mr. Byron Lovren from an extended tour to New York, Boston and other great cities of Uncle Sam's domains. Rumor says he still possesses the first four letters of his name!

The annual Xmas entertainment of the Methodist Sunday School takes place on Saturday evening, Dec. 24th. With sincere regret we are called upon to chronicle the death of one of our old and much respected citizens, in the person of Mr. Robert McKim, who was stricken with paralysis, on his daily return from the mail station on Dec. 2nd. He lingered in an unconscious state for four days, when the angel of death bid his sufferings cease.

The deceased leaves a large family of adults to mourn his loss. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Sanderson, from a very appropriate text for the occasion, viz. "For me to live is Christ, but to die is gain." His words concerning the deceased were likewise appropriate, not holding him up as a perfect man, but as a kind father, accommodating neighbor and good citizen.

tramp it back. Choosing the latter they arrived in town hungry, footsore and cross, vowing vengeance on the driver, freeman and the whole concern.

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.

The meeting in the High School building on Monday evening to consider the advisability of organizing a Mechanics' Institute, while not largely attended, was thoroughly representative in its character.

Mr. Jas. Ross was voted to the chair and called upon by B. Loverin, M. M. Fenwick, Rev. Jas. Pallar, Geo. W. Green, W. G. Parish, A. H. Gibbard, Sala Blanche and F. H. Eaton, who each spoke favorably of organization, and promised to give their hearty support.

The discussion, which partook largely of a conversational nature, elicited the following facts in relation to the mode of organization, the membership fee, and the grants given by the government in aid of Institutes.

Any number of persons, not less than ten, may be incorporated as a Mechanics' Institute, by filing a declaration to that effect in the office of the Registrar of the county. The person filing the declaration shall within thirty days thereafter call a meeting for the election of officers and the framing of by-laws for the regulation of the Institute. It shall be the duty of the officers to establish a library and reading room, containing books prescribed by the act. The annual grant shall be as follows: A membership of fifty, contributing $25, shall receive $25. If the membership be 100 or over, and the amount of subscriptions be $50, the grant shall be $50. In addition to this, every Institute receives $1 for every $1 expended on books (but the grant shall not exceed $150 in any year); the sum of $1 for every $1 expended for newspapers or magazines, (the sum not to exceed $50 yearly); and the further sum of $3 for every pupil attending evening classes for 25 pupils or under, and $1 for every additional pupil, not exceeding 100.

From the above it will be seen that the scope of the proposed Institute is large and the grants liberal. There is no distinction as to membership, all classes and both sexes being eligible.

After thoroughly discussing the pro's and con's, a committee, consisting of B. Loverin, Dr. S. S. Cornell and Geo. W. Green were appointed to canvass for membership and subscriptions. The committee will probably call upon the citizens on Friday and Saturday, soliciting their aid and cooperation.

WHO IS MY BROTHER?
A man may have an honest heart, though poverty hourly stare him; Yet have no cash to spare him. —Burns.

Mr. EDITOR:—There are times in one's life, when the light of prosperity and wealth burns brightly, that benign character may cause one to be over generous. It is at such periods that one seems to have many friends and brethren who will approve of his acts and listen to his counsel. But the scene is changed when adversity breathes upon prosperity, and scanty pockets take the place of a well-stocked one, which once shed its light abroad becomes dim, and at times seems about to be extinguished. It is then many mortals cry out with an aching heart, "Who is my brother?" My brethren who loved to me in my prosperity? Surely they will not pass by unheeded my cry, knowing well the circumstances of the past and present!

But, be that as it may; now that the Methodists of Canada are united and the members of that church in Farmersville wealthy or well-to-do, and having recently sold the North Church, will those in authority in that body recognize the claims of Mr. Geo. Nash, who has been a life-long and staunch Methodist; a man, as I know and a great many of you know, who worked, prayed and paid for far more than his share, even neglecting his own private business, to build a sanctuary where he has ministered (though few in number) might worship. This very man would not let Mr. Nash to-day is not a paper; neither will he be. This letter is not the heading of a subscription for himself or family; but is a recognition of true merit and in discharge of a duty, we owe to a man and brother. Some say, "We have made his claim." Well, even so—what he claimed when the church was financially embarrassed and at a period when the matter of the almighty dollar in the cause of good was freely given by him. Remember, friends, it was the aim of an almsgiving heart. "His pity gave ere charity began."

Dear Sir, I do not care to tire the readers of your paper with the matter; but I hope and trust that those who have it in their power so to do will remember that many can help one now, where in the past one has often helped the many.

Farmersville, Dec. 10th, 1887.

(The above letter, written by a respected citizen, is published not with any desire to stir up an ill feeling in the community, but simply to give expression to the sentiments of quite a number of our citizens. The letter is published as far as we know, without Mr. Nash's knowledge or consent. We have ourselves heard quite a number of our citizens express sentiments similar to those written by our correspondent, and there seems to be a feeling that Mr. Nash is justly entitled to some consideration for the money and time spent in the erection of the North Church, by those having the disposal of the fund accruing from the sale of the property.—Ed.)

Judgment has been given unsentencing Dr. Willoughby, M.P.P. for East Northumberland.

The wheat crop in Manitoba was enormous this year. The lowest reported yield in one district was 28 bushels to the acre, while some farms yielded 60.

The members of the Fisheries Commission, failing to come to an agreement, have adjourned for a few weeks. It is understood that the British Commissioners proposed that the United States fishermen should be permitted to take fish not only between headlands, but within the three mile limit of the Canadian shore. In return for this the Americans were to allow the free entry of Canadian fish and various other products. But no agreement could be arrived at on this basis.

Our little work and accommodation train is kept busy carrying track mechanics and dead head passengers. We know two of the latter who got sally left one day last week. Thinking to get a free and quick passage to Singleton's Corners and return, boarded the 11 o'clock express, on reaching the end of the route they found to their chagrin that they were doomed to wait until late in the day for the iron horse to return, or else

Our new station is progressing rapidly, and will be neat and commodious. It is in a very convenient situation, but will require raising another foot from the ground to be out of the reach of spring freshets.

The first passenger train arrived last week, consisting of a palace sleeper and dining car, for the construction gang.

The work of construction is being rapidly pushed forward. A large number of teams are engaged in hauling ties, timber, &c. Good wages and prompt pay brings them from quite a distance.

One of our oldest and most respected citizens, Mr. John Purvis, is very sick. He has been sick for some time, but during the last few days has been sinking rapidly.

There is a rumor that one of our merchants is about to sell out and remove to California.

Mr. S. Y. Farr, of the Robt. Wright & Co. branch store, has made his show window a centre of attraction by placing therein a novel automaton toy. Everybody has to stop and see it.
