

AUTUMN FASHIONS.

COSTUMES INAUGURATED WITH THE COOLER SEASON.

Tight Fitting Coats Prevail in Tailor Made Toggles—Various Other Coat Styles—Popular Revival of the Princess Gown.

The tailor made promises to be the garment par excellence for autumn street wear, and its smart severity only serves to heighten the piquant frivolity of ruffles and flounces for indoor wear. The coat of the tailor made may show a vest or be double breasted or fasten with many buttons down the center, but in no case does it boast the large cape collar, frills and revers which erstwhile finished every coat. Now the line of the neck and shoulder must be preserved, while space is left to show the white linen collar and cravat or jabot of embroidery at the throat.

Two elegant styles of coat figure prominently in the tailor made costumes.

times—the very long basque, charmingly cut to form almost a shapely tunic over the skirt, and a coat with an exceptionally short basque. No medium length in coats is admissible. All fit the figure and are very closely adjusted. The bolero and some novel individual efforts also find favor.

Chic tailor models for autumn appear in the cut. One, in golden brown cloth, displays novel spade fronts; the other, in powder blue cloth braided with black silk, exploits a long cloak turned back, with revers, collar and cuffs of velvet.

A Paris authority predicts, after investigation among the best couturiers, that the princess gown, with all kinds of transformations and embellishments, will certainly take a leading role for the coming season.

An open secret that is creating some excitement among those who are busy building their winter models is the intention of a leading house to bring out a severely cut princess gown, with a perfectly tight fitting sleeve, allowing only a con formable amplexure toward the top of the arm. This mode will appeal to many fair ones who are proud of their pretty "line of the figure," for no other style can show to advantage a good form better than a perfectly cut princess robe.

A princess robe of hyacinth blue cashmere closely plaited to below the hips, then falling loose, is here sketched. The short empire bolero is strapped across over a vest of soft muslin.

A second figure shows a princess dress of rosea green, with deep center front outlined with velvet trefails, velvet three tippet collar and small vest of openwork embroidery.

AMY VARNUM.

Fried Apple Sauce.

A variation on the usual dish of apple sauce can be made by quartering, coring and slicing tart red apples. For two quart mugs two tablespoonsful of butter in a large saucepan, and when it has cooked to a pale coffee color add one-half of the apples. Cover and shake occasionally over a hot fire for five minutes, then add the remainder of the apples and draw to one side where they will cook slowly until tender.

Whipped Cranberry Jelly.
Make one pint of firm cranberry jelly and one hour before serving beat with a wire egg whip until foamy all through. Fold in the stiffly beaten white of one egg and keep roughly on a glass serving dish.

RADIANT WOMANHOOD.

The glory and satisfaction of beautiful womanhood can be known only to those possessing the unlimited advantages of health. No weak woman can be happy or enjoy half the pleasures of life. Pallid cheeks, sunken eyes, exhausted nerves, all tell of a terrible struggle to keep up. What the weak woman needs is Ferrazone; it renews, restores and vitalizes instantly—it's a "woman's remedy"—that's why.

Ferrazone makes women strong, plump and healthy because it contains the elements of the blood, the kind that forms muscle, sinew, bone and nerve.

Vitalizing blood courses through the body, making delightful color, happy spirits, true womanly strength. Fifty cents buys a box of Ferrazone in any drug store.

BLENHEIM

April 17.—Miss Mabel and Wm. Hawgood are spending the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Hawgood.

The different churches of the town had special services for Easter Day: all were decorated for the occasion.

Trinity church never looked nicer, most of the flowers being white, composed of Easter lilies, white tulips and carnations. Special music was rendered by the choir. At the evening service an anthem was sung, "Why seek ye the living among the dead," Miss Rose Sheldon took the soprano solo and the Misses Green and S. Labadie sang the duet.

The rector officiated at the three services, which were well attended considering the inclemency of the weather.

Horace Baker, of Niagara Falls, is paying his parents a visit. He leaves in a few days for Calgary, N. W. T.

Archie Pickering and Wm. Young, of Detroit, spent Easter with relatives here.

The Terpsichore Club held the last assembly of the season in the Opera House on Thursday evening. The

Significant "Nots"

A Life Insurance Company may be judged by what it DOES NOT DO as well as by what it DOES DO. As illustrating the things which does NOT do, attention is invited to the following:

- (1) It does NOT deposit its policyholders' funds in any bank or Canadian Banks of good standing.
- (2) It does NOT contribute to campaign funds and it does NOT use policyholders' money for private or personal aggrandizement.
- (3) Its Head Office staff are not overpaid; they are not participants in profits arising from the Company's investments, and they do NOT and NEVER did hold or use proxies.

VALUABLE ADVICE TO MOTHERS

If your child comes in from play coughing or showing evidences of a gripe, sore throat, or sickness of any kind, get out your bottle of Nerviline. Rub the chest and neck with ten drops of Nerviline in sweetened water every two hours. This will prevent any serious trouble. No liniment or pain reliever equals Peppermint Nerviline, which has been the great family remedy in Canada for the past fifty years. Try a 25c. bottle of Nerviline.

There is no question but this medicine is the best that can be procured for coughs and colds, whether it be a child or an adult that is afflicted. It always cures and cures quickly. ## LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.

W. R. Wain? For Carnegie Libraries Would Be Scarce.

Toronto, April 17.—Several matters of interest were discussed at the sixth annual meeting yesterday of the Ontario Library Association, held both afternoon and evening. In the Canadian Institute on College street, under the chairmanship of the president, W. J. Robertson, B. A., LL.B., of the public library at St. Catharines. There was a goodly gathering of members, including several ladies.

Secretary E. A. Hardy reported some considerable progress and activity in library circles.

The treasurer, Prof. A. B. Macallum, regretted to have to present a somewhat unsatisfactory report, inasmuch as the expenditure of $113.53 left a deficit of $40.82. Owing to a technicality the Government grant promised was not forthcoming, hence the deficit.

N. Guard, B. C. L., of Sarnia Public Library, stated that a list of children's books had been prepared and sent to the Government. A brief discussion ensued concerning suitable books for children.

A resolution was passed, urging on the Government the reduction of postal rates on books, periodicals and magazines.

Smoking Rooms.
Rev. W. A. Bradley of Berlin made some remarks on chess, checkers and smoking-rooms in connection with a public library. The smoking-room was not a success at Berlin, owing to the inadequacy of accommodation. W. H. Henwood, librarian of Brantford, reported that there was accommodation for smokers at Brantford—the home of artisans—and the scheme worked well.

Options for and against the idea of smoking quarters in libraries balanced evenly.

T. W. H. Levitt, superintendent of public libraries, advocated a reform in classification. It was the intention to see that there was a library in every school to foster a love of good reading in the young.

In the evening Mr. Robertson gave the presidential address, in which he said that had it not been for the generosity of Andrew Carnegie they would have to make that comparatively few library buildings were erected. He advocated a revival of scientific and literary library institute meetings.

Bore Out the Legend.

Lake Chrissie is a small body of water in the eastern Transvaal, in connection with which there is an interesting legend. The Boers held the belief that not until the lake in question became dry would they lose their independence. For the first time within human memory the lake, one of the very few fresh water lakes in South Africa, was perfectly dry during the later stages of the war. After the declaration of peace the lake resumed its normal appearance, though the water was shallower than before. Twice since then—in 1904 and 1905—the bed of the lake has been quite dry.
