I. O. D. E.

A special meeting of the I. O. D. E. was held Monday evening in the Town Hall when the sum of forty dollars was voted toward defraying the hospital expenses of five needy patients, all children. One case is recovering from double pneumonia and four are to have their tonsils and adenoids removed before the opening of school.

Preparations for the fête on Sept. 14th go steadily forward. A special attraction will be the white elephant booth under the capable charge of Mrs. Member Parliament Robinson. Mrs. Robinson has absolutely no experience in the handling of white elephants but she brings to her task a fund of energy and executive ability. If you have in your home a "white elephant" (positively no husbands accepted) convey it to this booth and Mrs. Robinson by a process of alchemy will change it into a live workable pony. In other words if you have something you never use but somebody else would do so please donate to Mrs. Robinson at an early date.

The Nova Scotia Tennis Tournament is to be held next week at Bridgewater. The following members of the Wolfville Club are entered: Misses Frances Kierstead and Marjorie Chute, Dr. C. E. A. deWitt, Dr. Leslie Eaton, Dr. Eugene Eaton, Messrs. R. W. Tufts, Austen Chute and Murray Beardsley. We wish them luck.

TO PREACH TO THE KING

Rev. Canon H. J. Cody of Toronto who is at present touring England, will preach before King George on August 6th in the private chapel at Buckingham Palace. He is the first Canadian Cleric to be accorded this signal honor.

MEMORIAL CHURCH NEARING COMPLETION

Work upon the Memorial Church at Grand Pre Park has progressed very rapidly this week. The stone work of the building is completed and the interior lining of ventilating tiles is in place. This makes a wall two feet thick. The floor is to be of concrete and the foundations for this are already made. The roof is now boarded in and the steeple is raised, the top of which surmounted by a cross will be almost 100 feet from the ground. The front of the church arched high and the top of the opening will be of glass. The four great doors of the building will take up almost the width of the front. Standing upon the Park elevation north of the railway, the spire of the church can be seen from great distances. When completed the building will be a beautiful structure.

On the 16th of August, in the morning, High Mass will be celebrated by Bishop LeBlanc, of St. John, N. B. The sermon will be preached by another high dignitary of the church, Dr. F. A. Richard will officiate as master of ceremonies at the laying of the corner stone of the church. The Hon. D. V. Landry, Chairman of the construction committee, Rev. A. D. Cormier, who delivered an eloquent oration at the meeting of Acadians at Grand Pre last August; and Mr. R. A. Frechette, the architect of the Memorial Church, of Montreal, will be present to assist at the ceremonies this year.

The Hon. A. E. Arsenault, judge of the Supreme Court of P. E. I., President of the National Assumption Society; and Hon. A. Rivard, judge of the King's Bench, of Quebec, will be among the principal orators during the celebrations.

This Minas country of ours was first settled in 1680. In 1689 the church of St. Charles was erected at Grand Pre where the Memorial Chapel now stands. Some years later, St. Joseph's Church was erected in Canard, whose settlements of the Acadians followed rapidly after the colonization of the country south of the present Cornwallis River.

Both churches were enlarged from time to time to provide for the growth of the Acadian population. In 1775, all the buildings of Minas were destroyed when the people were removed. The descendants of those deported people in Canada and the United States, numbering over 150,000, are contributing the funds for the erection of the present church at Grand Pre.

A RECORD IN EARLY SHIPMENT OF APPLES

Berwick usually leads the rest of this grand old valley in the early shipment of seasonal fruit, particularly apples. This year this great apple producing section established a record in marketing the first apples of the 1922 crop as early as July 25th. That is the date (yesterday) when H. B. Ilsley shipped by express to Halifax, one barrel and fifteen baskets of choice early Astrachans. Can any other fruit section in the valley beat this?—Berwick Register

Another Conference at Wolfville

Summer School for Sunday School Workers in Session at Acadia Seminary.

The summer school of methods for Sunday-school workers, which opened on Thursday of last week and has been since in session, has had about seventy delegates in attendance, and the meetings have been interesting and helpful.

All the meetings of the conference were held in the chapel of Acadia Seminary, which was generously placed at the disposal of the school, and presided over by Rev. Waldo Machum, of Fredericton, Field Secretary of the Board of Religious Education for the Maritime Baptist Church. Associated with him were Rev. H. S. Strothard, B. D., Sackville, N. B., Field Secretary for the Maritime Methodist Church, and Rev. Frank M. Milligan, Field Secretary for the Maritime Presbyterian Church.

Two lady specialists in junior work were also present to lead the classes in their departments, Miss Alice Harrison, Moncton, and Miss Lillie Mitchell, Halifax.

The opening meeting on Thursday evening was largely attended. The devotional exercises were led by Rev. Mr. Machum, assisted by Rev. Mr. Miller, of Wolfville. The music was splendid with Miss Harrison at the piano, accompanied by Mr. Norman Clark, of Berwick on the clarinet, and Mr. James Kenney, of Barrington Passage, on the violin. This orchestral music added much to the enjoyment of the service.

Mr. Machum introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. Frank O. Erb, editor of Young People's Publications for the American Baptist Public Society in Philadelphia.

Dr. Erb reminded the members of the conference that during the months of July and August, in the United States and Canada, fifty thousand young people were gathered in schools similar to this with their hearts and minds reaching upward for the best, not for themselves, but for the Kingdom of God. He took as the subject of his address "Jesus as a Religious Educator". He considered it under two heads. First, certain fundamental principles in the life of Jesus as a religious educator. Jesus believed in the majesty of character. Character is based on religion. Religion is normal to Jesus. Jesus actually doing the work of a religious educator. Jesus made it His business to discover people's needs and to help them where they were. Jesus had the mastery of truth. He had wonderful skill in teaching. Appealed to the conscience and the will. He embodied His own teaching. He believed in leadership training. God wants the best.

Dr. Erb has a clear, forcible way of presenting his subject. On Friday morning the systematic work of the school began. Dr. J. A. Clark the popular minister of St. Matthew's church, Halifax, led the devotional Bible study each morning, taking as his theme "Psalm Studies". On Friday he took Psalm—8 "The song of the shining name" and in his own inimitable way, he opened up the beauties of this Psalm bringing from it meanings hitherto unknown to the ordinary reader. This Psalm tells us about the name of the Lord. Our names do not mean anything, but here the word "Name" means something about God, about His name in three things.

The first syllable of God's name is seen in nature in the heavens. The second syllable of God's name is the God, who made man, and the third syllable revealed in Jesus Christ. This Psalm is not finished but its conclusion is found in the second chapter of Hebrews. Man was many things in subjection unto Him, but not himself. There is a man, the man Jesus, who lived and was tempted and died, and he was the absolute master of Himself. He faced all evil of man's life, and misunderstanding of God and death. He went through all these things and He conquered them and put them under His foot. So all His followers may have the same victory, knowing this more than did the writer of the eighth Psalm. We find God's name so marvellous that we have not words to express it.

The students of the school were gripped by the originality of thought in Dr. Clark's teaching, and his clear and forcible way of presenting it.

The remainder of the morning was divided into three-lecture periods in charge of members of the faculty, each requiring the strictest attention and keenest thought of the student.

In the afternoon several games of volley ball were played, after which a number of enthusiasts enjoyed a hike to the Ridge. The evening's exercises began by a lecture by Rev. Frank Milligan. This was the first lecture of a series on Sunday school administration given each evening by Dr. Milligan. He had made a thorough study of his subject and very carefully and concisely gave the students the results of his study and experience.

At the close of the lecture the audience went into the drawing room for the informal period of song and story telling. The songs were led by Mr. Milligan and were entered into heartily. The story telling was most excellently done by Miss Harrison, Secretary of the Children's Division, M. R. E. C. G. I. T., Halifax, Mrs. Ford of Wolfville, and Mr. Doane Hatfield of Wolfville. Each one displayed unusual talent in this new feature of young people's work, and the story telling period was much enjoyed by all.

On Saturday morning Dr. Clark took for his devotional Bible study the eleventh psalm—"A Song for the Darkest Day" and again brought to the students a wealth of fine thought and inspiration.

One of the heaviest courses in the curriculum of the school was taught each morning by the Rev. Waldo C. Machum on "The teaching values of the old testament". Mr. Machum is a

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

A serious automobile accident occurred last Sunday afternoon at Cambridge, when a car driven by Ralph Spencer, of this place, was forced over the side of the road near the Ashley bridge by an unknown car and turned upside down.

The occupants of the car were pinned underneath for nearly fifteen minutes. Spencer was proceeding west at a moderate rate of speed and had just cleared the bridge when he met a big car coming from the opposite direction at a fast rate and which refused to turn out. Spencer's wheels went over the edge of the bank and the car turned completely over.

The driver of the unknown car did not stop but continued on his way at a furious rate of speed, leaving his injured victims on the road. The ill-fated car contained eight persons including Mrs. Spencer, his two brothers, Aubrey and Vernon, and their wives and three children.

The injured were taken to a nearby house where they were attended by Dr. Bishop, of Kentville. Ralph Spencer, who was found to be seriously injured, was taken to the Memorial Hospital, Berwick, where he still remains. At latest accounts his condition was much improved, and it is thought he will recover.

WOLFVILLE WINS BALL GAME

Defeats Lawrencetown in Last Inning—Score 4-3

The best ball game seen here this season was played on the Campus Wednesday afternoon, when the local team defeated Lawrencetown by the score of 4 to 3. The game was keenly contested throughout and the result was in doubt up to the last inning when Wolfville scored the winning run amid the cheers of the fans.

The visitors were strengthened by the addition of Winsor and Cohen, of the Boston Travellers, but even with this help they were not a match for the local team who played splendid ball. Lawrencetown scored the first run in the second inning on an error, and there was no further scoring until the seventh when the home team secured two runs and took the lead. Lawrencetown duplicated in the eighth and again took the lead only to lose it when Wolfville scored one when they came to bat. With the score a tie at the beginning of the ninth inning excitement ran high. The visitors tried hard but were unable to add to their score. The home team then went to bat. Kenzie reached first on an error and stole second. Eagles got a hit and stole second while Kenzie stole third. Scriven hit the ball to the second baseman and got out at first. Evans hit a sacrifice and Kenzie came home on an error. With the game won by Wolfville Lawrencetown retired from the field, although the home team had only one out.

Brown pitched a splendid game for Wolfville, striking out twelve men and allowing only five hits. L. Messenger pitched for Lawrencetown until the eighth inning when he was replaced by Winsor. Messenger struck out seven men, allowed five hits, and walked three men, while Winsor struck out one, walked one and allowed one hit. Evans got a two base hit in the eighth. Annis made three good catches. The game was refereed by Angus and Simons.

The driver of the unknown car did not stop but continued on his way at a furious rate of speed, leaving his injured victims on the road. The ill-fated car contained eight persons including Mrs. Spencer, his two brothers, Aubrey and Vernon, and their wives and three children.

CLINIC ITEMS

After the throat operations of Friday, Aug. 4th, at King's Memorial Hospital, Berwick, there will be no more clinics till September the first, when a Tuberculosis clinic will be held at Clinic room Weaver Block, Kentville, commencing 2 p. m., specialist from N. S. Sanatorium in attendance.

After an exhaustive survey of thirteen years records of Bellevue Hospital, New York, Dr. Alexander Lambert (Roosevelts personal physician) found to his surprise and delight that the number of cases of rheumatism (rheumatic fever, acute articular rheumatism) in proportion to other forms of disease in Bellevue, had fallen off 70 per cent, in thirteen years! In other words, there is today, less than a third as much rheumatism among 3000 patients in Bellevue Hospital as there was thirteen years ago.

The only thing, or influence or change of habit, which could possibly be supposed to account for this, was the splendid system of dentist clinics and tonsils, adenoids, and throat clinics, which were established in the public schools of New York City about twenty years ago and got into full swing about ten year ago.—Dr. Woods Hutchinson (McLean's Magazine.)
