What might have been a serious ac-cident occurred early Sunday evening when the cars of H. E. Adams, of this town, and Howard Cox, of Rosedale, came in collision. The accident took place at Victoria Corner at the turn of the Rosedale road, which is a very sharp turn. Mr. Adams was going towards Rosedale hugging his side of the road closely going at a lew rate of speed. Mr. Cox, who acted the man in acknowledging his foust, was on the wrong side. This road is very little frequented by autoists, is one reason for Mr. Cox's mistake. Luckily no one AGREE ON ASSESSMENT Elsewhere in this issue You can get your axle and cup grease at Rigby's Hardware, also gas-oline and motor oils at popular prices.
