Is it not high time that all the world should know and understand that the its gains are gains of ungodliness, and that its wealth is the price of blood? Years ago this was not fully understood, our cities writing newspaper wrappers Gladatone, Jan. 1898. Years ago this was not fully understood, and good men engaged in this bad busifor one dollar per thousand." ness; but if in past years God had winked at "the time of this ignorance" does he not now command all men everywhere to
