LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

Eating mistle berries caused the death of three children at Bokosf, Oklahoma. Several other children are seriously ill from the same cause.

The four small children of Ovide Baril, Archbishop's Court, P. E. I., perished in fire which destroyed the store and residence of their father.

Skating on Charles River Basin, at Boston Earl Peterson, aged 21 and Miss Lilla Paul, aged 20, broke through this ice and were drowned. Their bodies were recovered.

Four mail clerks and helpers were killed and several men injured when a Norfolk, Va., passenger train was wrecked on Monday in Williamson tunnel.

The arrest of W. R. Traversa, General Manager of the Farmers Bank, took place at Toronto the other day on a charge of making false returns of the Bank's position to the Government.

The civic and social observance of Christmas took place on Monday, which was a public holiday. Business was completely suspended and the day passed off very quietly and orderly.

Rev. Dr. Sinnott of Ottawa, Secretary of the Papal Delegate, arrived in the city on Friday last and went east to spend the Christmas holidays at his native home, Moreil.

Eliza and Margaret Bryan, aged 22 and 16 years of Pittsburgh, Pa., were fatally burned and their brother Andrew seriously injured in an explosion of gas which practically wrecked their home.

On returning home from an errand, Mrs. Robert Boies of Glasgow, Kentucky found her home in ashes and in the ruins were the charred bodies of her three young children. The children had apparently tried to escape but were trapped in the house.

Mr. Fielding has returned to Ottawa after a month's complete rest in the Southern States, and has actively resumed his departmental duties. He appears to be much improved in health.

Rev. Dr. F. C. Kelly, of Chicago, President of the Catholic Church Extension Society arrived here on Friday last and is spending his Christmas holiday in his native city. He preached at high Mass in St. Dunstan's Cathedral on Christmas Day.

As the Sydney Express crowded with passengers was running through the yard at Truro the engine and three cars jumped the track below Young St. crossing. No lives were lost. The damage to the roadbed and running gear is great. The engine and tender are lying almost on their sides.

A lonely bandit celebrated Christmas going through a Missouri Panhandle and robbing over a hundred passengers from whom he took money and watches. He escaped after shooting one indignant victim who endeavored to detain him.

There was a large market on Friday and business was brisk. Prices were well sustained. Cattle sold at $1.00 to $2.00 each, ducks $5c. to $12.5c a pair and fowl the same. Eggs were 35c to 40c a dozen and butter 24c to 25c a pound. Other prices were about the same as previous quotations.

The steamer "Yac" landed at Valencia, Spain, on Friday, having on board the sole survivor of the French steamer "Jean Concel." The man says his vessel was run down by an unknown craft off Oran, Algeria, and sank in a few minutes, carrying down all hands except himself.

Of the 23 killed in the stockyard fire by falling wall, the bodies of 19 including that of Fire Chief James Horan, had been taken from the ruins at a late hour. The list of dead includes the chief, the assistant chief, two captains, five lieutenants, 13 city firemen, two police men and a railway employee. Fifteen firemen were seriously injured including two captains.

Some days ago, a son of John S. Gaudet, Muddy Creek, lost his way in the woods, whither he had gone to do some shooting. He climbed a tall tree, with the view of locating his bearing; but the limb upon which he sat broke and he fell to the ground a distance of 25 feet. In the fall his shoulder was dislocated and his arm broken and he was rendered unconscious, when found he was wandering round the woods in a dazed condition from exposure and pain.

The greatest anxiety is felt at Dover, England, concerning the fate of Cecil Grace, a member of the Royal Aero Club, who made an attempt to win the DeLafayette Prize of $25,000 for the English Channel from Dover, reached the Belgian frontier, turned back by adverse winds, landed near Calais on the return trip, started from there on a homeward flight across the channel, and has not been heard from since. This was on the 21st, and up to the present nothing has been seen or heard of him.

On Thursday evening last a sad drowning accident occurred at South River, New London. The victims are Alexander McLean, aged 20 and Vernon Allen, aged 18 years. These two together with Wilfrid McRae, brother of the deceased, and Amelia Meek, were hauling a fishing shack across the river intending to place it near Campbell Island, in New London Bay, with the assistance hauled to the spot. The rescuers succeeded in saving Meek and Wilfrid McRae; but the other two were lost. Their bodies were recovered a short time after the accident.
