Reduction Leads to Stagnation

ACCORDING TO THE MINISTER OF FINANCE.

"Reductions of the Tariff are all in place, but this enormous big slice of $400,000 ought to set our heads whirling. A thoughtful man said to me, there must have been something wrong in the past, or strange things to happen soon."

The foregoing paragraph, as will be noted, is printed in inverted commas, to show that it is not a statement of ours, but of another. It is an extract taken from a letter of Mr. J. E. Lake, of Port Hope, a Tory, and a supporter of Sir Edward Morris and the People's Party. The letter was published in the Daily News this morning.

It will be noticed that there are two remarkable comments, the second alternative to the first, which are: "there must have been something wrong in the past, OR strange things to happen soon."

Let us take the first comment: "There must have been something wrong in the past." In other words, there must have been something wrong in the past four years with the Morris Administration, as it has waited until the end of the term before making these reductions.

This comment will bear further examination. Sir Edward Morris in his Manifesto of October 3rd, 1908, promised to put tea, sugar, pork and other prime necessities on the free list. He said it could be easily accomplished without in any way affecting the necessary revenues required to maintain the various public services of the Colony.

If it was so easy, why did not the Minister of Finance make the change in his first Budget in 1909? If it is said there was no time and that it was wiser to examine the situation carefully before the change was made, we ask why the change was not effected in the Budget of 1910, when everything was favorable. For there was a big surplus in view that year. Here is the evidence of it taken from the Budget Speech of the Minister of Finance delivered last year.

Here is what he said then:—"In the first year of the new regime, that is to say, from July 1st, 1909, to June 30th, 1910, the Colony entered upon a new era of prosperity, and its fiscal operations resulted in realizing a surplus revenue of $420,000, the greatest by far in our history, almost twice as large as in any previous year."

Here then was the opportunity. The Prime Minister, the Finance Minister, indeed the whole Ministry and party were pledged to place these articles on the Free List. But, if they had kept their word, there would have been less money to spend. There was the rub. They preferred to break their word and to have the $400,000 a year to distribute.

This was the revised policy and it was set forth clearly by the Minister of Finance last year in his Budget Speech. Here are some of his words: "Personally, under these circumstances, I should hesitate to assume the responsibility of advising a general reduction of taxation at the present time contending, rather, that such reduction, whenever made, should be gradual, and should depend upon the state of the revenue and of the public service, so that it might not dislocate our economic and industrial machinery."

The Minister has now assumed responsibility for a general and not a gradual reduction. Why? Is it because a General Election is near at hand? Why has he risked what he called last year, the dislocation of our economic and industrial machinery? Last year he said the inevitable consequence of such a reduction would be "that the present march of progress would have to be stopped and the pulsating energy and advance exhibited by the Colony the past three years give place to stagnation? Why is the Minister now marking his course for stagnation? Is the policy of the Morris Ministry now rule or ruin. Is that the key to the enigma in Mr. Lake's letter. "There must have been something wrong in the past, or strange things to happen soon."

OBITUARY.

At St. Bride's, on March 22nd, there passed away to his eternal reward Laurence Conway, leaving a wife and one son to mourn the loss of a faithful husband and kind father. The deceased passed away rather suddenly, but he must have had some premonition of his approaching death, because he called on the Rev. Father Fyfe at the Presbytery, received the consolations of his holy religion, returned home and died. Larry (as he was familiarly known) was a good, honest, upright man, beloved by all for his wit and cheerfulness, he will be sadly missed in the community. On Easter Monday morning a Requiem Mass was celebrated over his remains, and he was laid away at the foot of the cross in the little cemetery on the hill, there to await the resurrection morn. May his soul rest in peace.

A sweepstake transaction occurred yesterday forenoon in a club room between two certain gentlemen, and, in consequence a party interested is lamenting today. He held a ticket, the Stephano for Sunday, which meant $50 to him a few hours later, but he sold it to his business-like neighbour for $10, not believing that the Stephano was homeward bound, and is therefore $40 out as a result of his poor "spec."

The dance and supper that followed were fairly well patronized. Our amateur theatricals have now closed for the season and the Amusement Committee of the Star Association thank the public for their generous patronage.
