Lord Bishop of Newfoundland.

Fiftieth Anniversary of Ordination to the Priesthood of Right Reverend Llewellyn Jones, D.D.

This being the Jubilee Year of the Bishop of Newfoundland's Ordination to the Priesthood, it was the unanimous wish of the Clergy of the Diocese to embrace the opportunity which such an auspicious event offered of expressing their love and loyalty to their Diocesan who is so rightly and deservedly esteemed by all Creeds and Classes.

Arrangements were accordingly made for carrying out this wish with the result that on Christmas Eve a deputation of the City Clergy—Clergy in the outports being unable to attend at this season—consisting of Revs. Canon Smith, Canon White, Canon Bolt, C. H. Barton, H. Uphill and Dr. Jones waited upon His Lordship at Bishop's Court and presented him with the following address together with a handsome Silver Salver of chased design on which is beautifully engraved the Bishop's Arms with the years of Ordination and of the Jubilee (1865-1915), and the following inscription:—

Presented to The Right Rev. Llewellyn Jones, D.D., Lord Bishop of Newfoundland, On the occasion of the Jubilee of his Ordination to the Priesthood by his Clergy as a Token of their affectionate regard.

The address, printed on parchment, which was read by Canon Smith, Episcopal Commissary, was as follows:—

ADDRESS

To the Right Reverend Llewellyn Jones, D.D., Lord Bishop of Newfoundland:

On the occasion of the Fiftieth Anniversary of your Lordship's Ordination as a Priest in the Church of God, we, the undersigned Clergy, who have served or are now serving in your Diocese, desire to offer to your Lordship our hearty congratulations on the completion of a Ministry of half a century, the greater part of which has been spent in this Colony.

Of your Lordship's happily extended Episcopate, the longest but one in the whole of our Empire, during which you have given many proofs of your care for the welfare of the Church, and of your devotion to duty, especially in remaining at your post when you might have accepted less onerous work, it is not necessary for us to dwell. Your work and labors of love are known and read of all men.

While always rendering to your Lordship our filial affection as our Diocesan, we desire at this time to acknowledge the many acts of kindness which your clergy have from time to time received at your hands. It is as one, not only "given to hospitality" at all times, but also the friend and brother of your clergy in times of stress, that we desire to approach your Lordship on the present occasion, and we humbly ask your acceptance of the accompanying Salver, with the hope that it may long remain in your family as a slight token of our affectionate regard.

Christmas, 1915. The Bishop who expressed himself as taken by surprise, gracefully replied and referred feelingly to the happy relations which have always existed between him and his clergy during his long tenure of office.

Distinctions for Caribou Hill Heroes

Christmas Day, 1915. His Excellency the Governor has received official notification of Awards for Acts of Gallantry and Devotion to Duty, as follows:—
Military Cross—Lieut. James John Donnelly.
Distinguished Conduct Medal (D.C.M.)—No. 266—Sergeant Walter Martin Greene (of Arundale). No. 807—Private Richard Hynes (of Fogo).

J. R. BENNETT, Colonial Secretary. Lieut. James J. Donnelly, son of the late William Donnelly, worked at Knowling's dry goods store before enlisting. He was a prominent member of the C.C.C. in which brigade he held the rank of Captain at the time of his departure from here. He took a prominent part in athletics. He was a long distance walker of repute, a great baseball enthusiast and a well known figure in other branches of sport as well. He was a member of the Christian Brothers. His mother is at present living on Gower Street, and he has a brother Michael, foreman of J. D. Ryan's grocery.

Sergeant Walter Martin Greene was formerly a member of the Nfld. Constabulary and previous to enlisting was doing duty at Avondale. He is a son of the late Constable Greene of Bell Island, and a brother of Miss Rose M. Greene, whose verses on different occasions have won for her much fame as a writer of words. Sergeant Greene has a brother in the regiment, Private Gus Greene, who left here with the first contingent.

Private Richard Hynes, who has a brother Lemuel B. Hynes in the same company as he, is the son of Richard and Elizabeth Hynes, of Indian Islands, district of Fogo.

Recently recommendations of Awards for acts of gallantry, fearlessly done by these three sons of Newfoundland, were made by the General in command and on Christmas Day these recommendations received the official stamp of approval. We congratulate the parents of each of these courageous and honored soldiers of the King for they are a credit to Newfoundland—and Newfoundland is proud of them—and a credit to the Newfoundland Regiment. Newfoundland has now one holder of the Military Cross, one D.S.M., Reservist Leander Greene, son of Mr. Mark Greene, of St. John's Without, T.B., and two D.C.M's.

Christmas Services.

C. E. CATHEDRAL.

The Christmas services at the C. of E. Cathedral were attended by large congregations. The singing by the choir was very beautiful particularly the Carols which were sung after Evensong yesterday. At Matins on Christmas Day the Lord Bishop occupied the pulpit and preached an eloquent sermon.

R. C. CATHEDRAL.

At midnight Christmas Eve High Mass was celebrated by Rt. Rev. Mgr. McDermott, V. G. His Grace the Archbishop being slightly indisposed. The Archbishop occupied his seat on the Throne and was present during Mass. The attendance was large, the spacious Cathedral being filled to capacity. The High Altar was beautifully decorated and was illumined with electric lights. The singing of the choir was up to the usual high standard.

TE DEUM SUNG.

At Vespers last evening a solemn Te Deum was sung in Thanksgiving to Almighty God for deliverance during the year. His Grace occupied the Throne and was assisted by Revs. Nangle and Sheehan, the chanters being Revs. Drs. Carter and Greene. After the singing of the Te Deum, Benediction was imparted by the Archbishop.

WESLEY CHURCH SERVICES.

The Christmas and Anniversary Sunday School services at Wesley Church were largely attended. The church was tastefully decorated by the members of Epworth League, and the Anthems were bright and were well rendered. The sermons preached by the Revs. H. Royle and N. Guy, M.A., were inspiring. The Sunday School Anniversary was celebrated in a fitting manner, the singing of the hymns being much enjoyed.

Rhodes' Scholar.

Mr. Malcolm Hollett, B.A.

The committee for the selection of the Rhodes Scholar for 1916, met at the Government House this morning and selected Mr. Malcolm Hollett, of Burin. Mr. Hollett received his school education at the Methodist College and afterward proceeded to Mt. Allison University, where he graduated as a B.A. The Committee of selection included His Excellency the Governor, Sir Wm. Horwood, Mr. J. Kent, Rev. Dr. Curtis, Hon. R. K. Bishop, Mr. A. J.
