LONDON SUMMARY. LONDON, To-day. On the Somme front in France the French and British forces again have taken the offensive and have been rewarded with additional gains. General Haig's men made progress toward Bapaume, while General Foch's soldiers who apparently have begun another effort to eject the Germans from Combles and its salient. The Entente line north of the Somme also met with success following the checking of a German attack southeast of Combles beween Lepriez Farm and Rancourt at the end of the French part of the Entente line which almost encircled the town. The French un dertook local operations on the outskirts of Combles itself and organized and defended a house captured Several trench elements were occu pid in these enterprises and 140 prisoners taken. General Haig's troops Martinpuish and Flers, a distance of about one mile, by taking two lines of German trenches. The British front there now runs on a direct line north of the two villages. London also records an improvement in other positions on the British front. It is announced officially in Paris that the number of prisoners taken by the September 17, while bombs from the from July 1st to Sept. 18 aggregates something over 55,800; of these 34,-000 fell into the hands of the French

Boy's Narrow Escape From Drwoning.

A ten year old youth while romping round the King's wharf this morning fell overboard. His screams for help were heard by a boatman nearby amed Robert Ratchford, who rescued the lad in the nick of time. The oungster had a narrow escape from eing drowned. Daily children can e seen on the King's Wharf 'tom cod' jigging, jumping in and out of boats and doing other "stunts" and the wonder is that a fatality does not happen. Parents should warn their children and keep them away from danger.
